St Paul Oregon 1830 1890:

St. Paul, Oregon, 1830-1890 Harvey James McKay, 1980 The Lord's Distant Vineyard Vincent J. McNally, 2000-08
Dr McNally critically examines well over 150 years of Oblate and general Catholic history in Canada's westernmost province with special emphasis on the Native people and Euro-Canadian settlers. It is the first survey history of the Catholic Church in British Columbia.

Oregon 1859 Janice Marschner, 2008-07-15 The essential Oregon guide for time travelers of all ages. Oregon became the 33rd state in the Union on February 14, 1859. Portland had wooden sidewalks and tamped dirt streets unlit by gaslight until a year later. To the south, gold glittered in streams, towns with names like Echo, Lookingglass, and Quartzville were springing up all over. It is a time to remember and revisit today, 150 years later, with this detailed and lively guide. Janice Marschner provides all you need to travel through each of Oregon's 19 original counties at the moment of statehood: a map showing each county's 1859 place names and current reference points, the history of native peoples and settlers, early roads and bridges, the first homes, schools, stores, hotels, and churches, biographical sketches of notable individuals throughout the state. Historical photographs show the determined faces of natives and settlers, their oxen and wagons on wide, rough roads, their rafts and ferries on the rivers, and their towns under development. An inspiring close-up portrait at the moment of statehood, Oregon 1859, will light the way back for anyone who wants to see Oregon today as it was then.

Hold Tight the Thread Jane Kirkpatrick, 2009-10-14 BASED ON A TRUE STORY In a land occupied by foreign powers and torn by confusion and conflict, a mother seeks to weave her family and her past into a fabric that will not tear. Their lives were woven by wars and wilderness, places and tied by the peace of family and faith. As the 1840s bring conflict to the Pacific Northwest's rugged Columbia Country, new challenges face Marie Dorion Venier Toupin, the wife, mother, and Ioway Indian woman who crossed the Rocky Mountains with the Astor Expedition, the first big fur trapping expedition after Lewis and Clark's. On French Prairie in the newly forming Oregon Territory, Marie strives to meet the needs of her conflict-ridden neighbors: British settlers and Americans, missionaries and disease-stricken natives, fur trappers and French-Canadian farming families, and the surviving natives of the region. At the same time as a mother, Marie must weave together the threads of an unraveling family. One daughter compares and judges as she seeks to find her place; another reaches for elusive evidence of her mother's love. Marie's memories are threatened with the emergence of a figure from the past. In the midst of this turmoil, Marie discovers an empowering spiritual truth: Unconditional love can shed light on even the darkest places in the heart.

French Canadians, Furs, and Indigenous Women in the Making of the Pacific Northwest Jean Barman, 2015-02-25 Jean Barman was the recipient of the 2014 George Woodcock Lifetime Achievement Award. In French Canadians, Furs, and Indigenous Women in the Making of the Pacific Northwest, Jean Barman rewrites the history of the Pacific Northwest from the perspective of French Canadians attracted by the fur economy, the indigenous women whose presence in their lives encouraged them to stay, and their descendants joined in this distant setting by Quebec paternal origins the French language and Catholicism French Canadians comprised Canadiens from Quebec Iroquois from the Montreal area and m tis combining Canadien and indigenous descent For half a century French Canadians were the largest group of newcomers to this region extending from Oregon and Washington east into Montana and north through British Columbia Here they facilitated the early overland crossings drove the fur economy initiated non wholly indigenous agricultural settlement eased relations with indigenous peoples and ensured that when the region was divided in 1846 the northern half would go to Britain giving today s Canada its Pacific shoreline Every Fixed Star Jane

Kirkpatrick,2009-09-30 Continuing the Tender Ties Historical Series Every Fixed Star brings readers more of the dramatic fictionalized account of Marie Dorion the real life woman who was the first mother to cross the Rocky Mountains and remain in the Northwest In Book Two of the series Marie learns the value of a tender heart the faith of distant friends and the act of holding life s circumstances in open hands Following the family tragedy the great battle for survival and the test of faith described in A Name of Her Own Marie relocates her family to the Pacific Northwest territory s Okanogan settlement The year is 1814 and as is customary of her life out West Marie faces constant challenges simply to keep her children clothed and fed Yet inside each challenge awaits a gift to be unwrapped Countless times Marie has proven herself a survivor Incredibly she must now endure further realizations of a woman s fears an abrupt ending to love distance from friends the disappearance of one child the consequences of another s poor choices Through it all Marie is tempted to believe that she doesn t deserve God s love in the everyday places When blessings arrive she struggles to accept them fearing they will be followed by more difficult challenges But ultimately the threads of past friendships and their prayers a faithful love and her own service to others all lead her to God s gift of a full and abundant life Peace Weavers Candace Wellman,2020-10-14

Throughout the mid 1800s outsiders including many Euro Americans arrived in what is now northwest Washington As they interacted with Samish Lummi S Klallam Sto lo and other groups some of the men sought relationships with young local women Hoping to establish mutually beneficial ties Coast and Interior Salish families arranged strategic cross cultural marriages Some pairs became lifelong partners while other unions were short These were crucial alliances that played a critical role in regional settlement and spared Puget Sound s upper corner from the tragic conflicts other regions experienced Accounts of the men who often held public positions army officer Territorial Supreme Court justice school superintendent sheriff exist in a variety of records Some like the nephew of Confederate President Jefferson Davis were from prominent eastern families Yet across the West the contributions of their native wives remain unacknowledged The women s lives were marked by hardships and heartbreaks common for the time but the four profiled Caroline Davis Kavanaugh Mary Fitzhugh Lear Phillips Clara Tennant Selhameten and Nellie Carr Lane exhibited exceptional endurance strength and adaptability Far from helpless victims they influenced their husbands and controlled their homes Remembered as loving mothers and good neighbors they ran farms nursed and supported family served as midwives and operated businesses They visited relatives and attended ancestral gatherings often with their children Each woman s story is uniquely hers but together they and other intermarried women helped found Puget Sound communities and left lasting legacies They were peace weavers Author Candace Wellman hopes to shatter stereotypes surrounding these relationships Numerous collaborators across the United States and Canada descendants local historians academics and more graciously participated in her seventeen year effort Oregon Historical Quarterly Oregon Historical Society,2010 Honoré-Timothée Lempfrit, O.M.I., His Oregon Trail Journal and Letters from the Pacific Northwest, 1848-1853 Honoré-Timothée Lempfrit,1985 America, History and Life ,2007 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada
