Stable Girl Patricia Harrison Easton, Herb Ferguson, 1991 Portrays a day in the life of Danielle who works in her family's racing stable and helps in the family business of training racehorses Gender, Work, and Harness Racing Elizabeth Anne Larsen, 2014-11-19 While gender equality has progressed in many sports since the second wave of the feminist movement in terms of women's inclusion participation and success harness horse racing has been recalcitrant to change Gender Work and Harness Racing Fast Horses and Strong Women in Southwestern Pennsylvania investigates the stories of women involved in harness racing to expose how they use the uniqueness of their situation to work for positive change With stirring accounts of the strong women who are surviving and sometimes succeeding in harness horse racing Elizabeth Anne Larsen's analysis provides insight for studies of gender and work occupational sex segregation and women's studies STABLE

GIRL:WORKING FOR THE FAMILY. PHOTOS BY HERB FERGUSON. Patricia Harrison Easton, 1991 The Family, 1928 Reshaping the Work-Family Debate Joan C. Williams, 2012-01-01 The United States has the most family hostile public policy in the developed world Despite what is often reported new mothers don't opt out of work They are pushed out by discriminating and inflexible workplaces Today's workplaces continue to idealize the worker who has someone other than parents caring for their children Conventional wisdom attributes women's decision to leave work to their maternal traits and desires In this thought provoking book Joan Williams shows why that view is misguided and how workplace practice disadvantages men both those who seek to avoid the breadwinner role and those who embrace it as well as women Faced with masculine norms that define the workplace women must play the tomboy or the femme Both paths result in a gender bias that is exacerbated when the two groups end up pitted against each other And although work family issues long have been seen strictly through a gender lens we ignore class at our peril The dysfunctional relationship between the professional managerial class and the white working class must be addressed before real reform can take root Contesting the idea that women need to negotiate better within the family and redefining the notion of success in the workplace Williams reinvigorates the work family debate and offers the first steps to making life manageable for all American families The Wiley Handbook on What Works with Girls and Women in Conflict with the Law Shelley L. Brown, Loraine Gelsthorpe, 2022-03-07 The Wiley Handbook on What Works with Girls and Women in Conflict with the Law The most practical discussion of the rehabilitation of girls and women in conflict with the law in the correctional arena What Works with Girls and Women in Conflict with the Law is the leading examination of evidence based practice in the field of gender responsive corrections Adopting an international and intersectional approach the distinguished authors seek to collect the best available data and thinking on what works with girls and women and apply it to the real world problems facing correctional systems today As part of its contextual and rich approach to the subject What Works with girls and women in conflict with the law covers a broad variety of topics ranging from theories of female involvement in crime security classification and risk assessment evidence based treatment and supervision approaches special populations such as Indigenous women to legal policy developments in the field of gender responsive corrections Perfect for students and practitioners in the field of psychology criminology social work criminal justice and corrections this is the only reference of its kind to focus on the practical applications of the latest theory Abigail's World Victoria Webster,2025-02-20 We first meet Abigail Thomas in The Con Artist 2022 where she plays a supporting role In Abigail s World Victoria Webster s second novel she is central to the story Leaving her comfortable and unremarkable life behind she moves with her husband and two children into a wealthy enclave where she realises that she must redefine herself if she is to succeed in this new world Follow her as she navigates her way around the trials and tribulations of her neighbours with their secrets and aspirations school hierarchies with their class divides an errant husband and friendships which can flounder or flourish One day without warning Abigail finds her world turned upside down Will it right itself again Mama Brown's Family Crystal Evans,2013-12-03 The dogs ran through the yard kicking up ruckus outside They said that dogs could hear a man coming down the road from a mile away due to their superior auditory mechanism Something was coming and the dogs were afraid Diamond rolled over in her bed and fell back into a deep sleep She could have sworn she heard noises outside but then people always checking her Uncle early in the morning She was falling back into a deep sleep when she heard a strong thud Diamond looked out the window the place was chillingly silent She knew what that silence meant she had experienced it several times over the years It was the sound of catastrophe She heard a pop it sounded like a gunshot and then eight more similar ricocheting sounds and it was coming from her Uncle s house Researching Work-Family Discourses Eduardo R. Infante,2011-05-25 Gender talk and work family issues have enticed many researchers worldwide in their wish to provide key insights into the globalised burden of balancing work family demands However most studies follow the traditional quantitative methodology which fails to embrace the complexity of these issues The present book is aimed to cover this gap by researching work family discourses also with qualitative methodologies based on social representations of work family and gender roles The book details the process step by step with the hazardous duty of unveiling the hidden social messages of androcentric worlds towards defining degenderised societies in androgynous terms Notwithstanding its complexity the work family discourses are retrieved from British best awarded TV sitcom Only Fools and Horses The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen,2021-04-06 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu s sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Lo c Wacquant s hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome on inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents subjective experiences of place social divisions and dishonour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare
