Normativity Conor McHugh, Jonathan Way, Daniel Whiting, 2018-01-26 What should I do What should I think Traditionally ethicists tackle the first question while epistemologists tackle the second Philosophers have tended to investigate the issue of what to do independently of the issue of what to think that is to do ethics independently of epistemology and vice versa This collection of new essays by leading philosophers focuses on a central concern of both epistemology and ethics normativity Normativity is a matter of what one should or may do or think what one has reason or justification to do or to think what it is right or wrong to do or to think and so on The volume is innovative in drawing together issues from epistemology and ethics and in exploring neglected connections between epistemic and practical normativity It represents a burgeoning research programme in which epistemic and practical normativity are seen as two aspects of a single topic deeply interdependent and raising parallel questions

The Leadership Challenge James M. Kouzes, Barry Z. Posner, 2006-03-06 When it was initially written in 1987 few could have predicted that The Leadership Challenge would become one of the best selling leadership books of all time Now faced with the new challenges of our unpredictable global business environment Jim Kouzes and Barry Posner two of the country's premier leadership experts have completely revised and updated their classic book Building on the knowledge base of their previous books the third edition of The Leadership Challenge is grounded in extensive research and based on interviews with all kinds of leaders at all levels in public and private organizations from around the world In this edition the authors emphasize that the fundamentals of leadership are the same today as they were in the 1980s and as they've probably been for centuries In that sense nothing's new Leadership is not a fad While the content of leadership has not changed the context has and in some cases changed dramatically

With Eyes Wide Open John W. Roberts, 2023-01-18 With Eyes Wide Open is the story of Quentin Marshall an African American man falsely charged with raping and murdering Carley Andrews a young White woman The action unfolds in a fictional town in the state of South Carolina in the late 1950s and early 1960s Despite his protestations of innocence Quentin is quickly tried found guilty and sentenced to death in the electric chair With Eyes Wide Open however is not just another story about the wrongful conviction of an innocent Black man It is a cautionary tale about the corrosive effects of systemic racism on the actions beliefs and decisions of oftentimes well intentioned people In the case of Quentin it facilitates the transformation of an innocent Black man into a guilty rapist murderer The story is told through a series of overlapping monologues delivered by individuals who report on the action as it unfolds Some of the narrators are individuals who actively participate in the process of victimizing Quentin while others are passive victims whose lives are impacted by what happens to him Collectively their points of view provide glimpses into the motivations of the different actors who either actively participate vehemently oppose or passively stand by with eyes wide open as an innocent man fights for his life within a system indifferent to his existence

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880-1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present
