Stand In For Romance Cameo Romance 43:

Scorching Love Gopal Gandhi, Tridip Suhrud, 2022 This book publishes for the most part for the first time Gandhi's letters to his youngest son Devadas from 1914 when father and son were both in South Africa to 1948 when they were both in Delhi the capital of free India where within hours of the last letter Gandhi was assassinated Gandhi wrote these letters by day he wrote them by night he wrote them from aboard trains steamers both right and left hands being pressed into service to rest one when tired out The letters span three decades during which the writer grew from being a fighter for the rights of Indians in South Africa to being hailed as Father of the Nation by millions in India and opposed by many as well including the man who felled him by three bullets fired at point blank range on 30 January 1948 The letters hold his aspirations for his son and for his nation They bear great love and they also scorch And we see Devadas the recipient of the letters move in them from compliant childhood and youth to adulthood questioning and remonstrating with his father and being just the independent son his father wants him to be literature Part II of Don Quixote is the far richer part for its meta literary reflection on the novel itself as a genre and on life as such seen through the lens of self reflection The author has treated the phenomenon of modern self reflexivity as originally theological in nature in previous publications notably Dante s Paradiso and the Theological Origins of Modern Thought Toward a Speculative Philosophy of Self Reflection Routledge 2021 The present endeavor expands this overall intellectual project extending it into detailed consideration of what is recognizably another nodal great work inaugurating unprecedented forms of self reflection in the early modern period Reading the founding texts of literary and cultural tradition in this negative theological key proves crucial to allowing them to release the full force of their religious vision in the present age despite its sometimes obstinate secularity This reading absorbs and reconciles the religious and secular readings of Miguel de Unamuno and Jos Ortega y Gasset two of Spain s outstanding philosophical luminaries Both thinkers based their entire philosophies and their analyses of the Spanish national character and destiny on their interpretations of the Quixote Negative theology deploys critical reason that critiques the limits of reason itself and opens toward an unfathomable un ground of All Such speculative interpretation performs a synthesis of the secularizing and sacralizing tendencies that are both sublimely operative in the text of the Quixote It thereby enables the work to emerge in the fully parodic and paradoxical vitality that other interpretations governed by one paradigm or the other access only partially Rather than falling into one camp or the other the proposed approach combines and resources both heritages sacred and secular in their deepest synergisms Spanish baroque mysticism and contemporary post secular thought are made to converge in highlighting the blessed even sacred donation that literature like Don Quixote preserves and transmits as our most precious and saving cultural heritage
