Stand In The Gap The Prayer Journal:

Stand in the Gap Prayer Journal Bill McCartney, 2014-10-08 I once knew a football coach He was a driven man who had sacrificed much to climb the ladder of his profession This coach loved his job he was energized by competition inspired by success His focus was hard and narrow He traveled far and wide to charm a prized recruit spent most waking hours assessing his team evaluating last week's mistakes sweating over next week's game plan His mind was trained to detect the smallest chink in the enemy's armor to exploit any advantage Most days he was up and out of the house before anybody else was awake Many nights he came home long after everyone had gone to bed He was not however a one dimensional man He was also a devoted Christian unashamed of the gospel energized and outspoken about God He was quick to proclaim the name of Jesus Christ wherever he went He attended church and by all appearances seemed like the real deal a sincere believer on fire for Jesus Christ a humble servant of God If someone would have followed this coach from dawn to midnight he would have seen him praying over his office quarters every morning and heard him on his lunch time walk ask God's blessing over each staff member and player He would have beheld a man who talked a lot about God But in reality he would have discerned a man intoxicated with coaching left with no choice but to conclude Coach says he's excited about God but his actions tell me he's really excited about football He says he's excited about his marriage but he didn't even see his wife today I think he's really excited about football And finally Coaching takes so much of this man's time and energy Coaching not God comes first in his life And he would have been right By now you've guessed the coach is me or was me While I wanted balance in my life there was imbalance I meant well I would share the gospel with anyone I would boldly preach Christ in public share my love for God And there is no doubt in the off season God got substantially more of my time But there was a contradiction in my daily walk with God My heart while it longed for deeper connection to God was sold out to my profession to competition to whatever it took to win football games I knew about winning football I needed to know more about loving the Lord your God with all of your heart and with your soul and with all your strength City on A Hill Prayer Journal

Diana Crews, 2007-03 Designed to bring about a closer walk with God this journal introduces readers to a brand new adventure of seeing God daily in their lives and in others Motivation Standing in the Gap Gladys Blews Wilson, 2011-08-23 All my life God the Father was standing in the gap created when my biological father gave up his quest to be reconciled with my mother However I didn't realize God was there for me until I was almost forty years old At that time I discovered a new reality of His presence when cancer invaded our family a frenzied teenager tried to kill our daughter Val our best friend was brutally murdered and we discovered a psychopath stalking our daughter Robin I believe the key to this new reality was starting each day by reading the Bible and making notes about what I thought God was saying to me Through this process I worked through my rebellion against a God who wanted to start the on going process of transforming my life into the image of His son Jesus Christ He waited patiently for me to open the door of my heart to His Lordship Are you entirely satisfied with your life or do you question the reality of your faith in the crucible of trials Have you wondered if life is fair or questioned why a loving God would allow pain and suffering Standing in the Gap will show you that God the Father is standing at the door of your heart right now He will never force His way in My prayer is that this book may empower you to make the most important decision of your life a decision to open the door between the sacred and the common
