The Gospel Is True Octavo:

The Gospel and Letters of John, Volume 2 Urban C. von Wahlde, 2010-11-22 Urban von Wahlde's radically new three volume commentary on the Gospel and Letters of John is the most detailed study of the composition of the Johannine literature ever put forth by an American scholar. Nearly all of the problems confronted by those who study John have to do with the literary strata of the Gospel of John and their relation to the composition of the Letters of John. With an archaeologist's precision and engaging a whole range of scholarly contributions in this area, von Wahlde digs down to the foundations and exposes three distinct literary strata in the development of the Johannine tradition. Volume 1 gives detailed evidence identifying and listing the criteria for each stratum. Volumes 2 and 3 apply those criteria to the Gospel and Letters of John respectively. These books are part of the Eerdmans Critical Commentary series edited by David Noel Freedman and Astrid B. Beck.

The Way, the Truth, and the Light According to the Gospel and Revelation of John Victor Pierobon, 2021-10-10 John best described the Way, the Truth, and the Light in the New Testament. Jesus Christ is the only sinless and selfless Man with the Holy Spirit of Truth and the Light and Breath of God residing in Him, becomes our Lord and Judge, most favored by God. The book is an analysis of all the works of John, line by line. John's Christ often contradicts many modern Christian denominations. This book points out these discrepancies. It also provides a clear trace of Adam and his fall to his lineage of Mankind, as well as the divine evolutionary interventions that shaped our species' evolution of humanity and their divine souls. In the Final Days of Revelation and Matthew's Gospel, both state to let Evil be evil and Good be good. Revelation reveals the harvest of the Good from Earth as Earth slowly gets scorched and destroyed by God. God destroys the Evil ones that destroyed the Earth. A new City of God, along with a new Earth and a New Heaven, is created for those Good souls spared from the Second Death, the death of the soul. A complete summary of this book is presented in the third Chapter: The Christian Beliefs, Events, and Definitions. The Appendix also provides comparative ideas and facts from other religions, science, philosophy, spiritual works, and Near Death accounts that verify John's New Testament writings. This book supersedes and replaces my other two previous books: How to Believe in Christ According to the Gospel of John and The City of God, the Bride of Christ, and the Second Death According to Revelation of John, and these two previous books will no longer be updated and could be unpublished later on, or a nominal price will be added for those who are curious on how this book evolved from past editions.

Reading the Gospels Today Stanley E. Porter,2004 As ancient documents the New Testament Gospels can seem distant from contemporary life or irrelevant to modern society Further complicating the task of reading the Gospels is the way they seem to introduce differing if not competing pictures of Jesus Reading the Gospels Today is meant to help Bible readers understand and move beyond the difficulties involved in interpreting Scripture in our current context In these insightful studies several biblical scholars explore the content of the Gospels while also discussing how to read these writings in relation to each other and in terms of today s world Some chapters consider issues that vex Gospel criticism others look at particular texts or Synoptic themes still others demonstrate how one s immediate interpretive context helps to raise the issues and shape the answers that are found when we read the Gospels Well organized thoughtfully written and widely accessible this volume will serve to draw readers into the exciting field of contemporary Gospels study Contributors Craig A Evans Michael Knowles Andrew T Lincoln Allan Martens Lee Martin McDonald Stanley E Porter Al Wolters Yong Eui Yang
