The Grand Trunk Road Khyber To Calcutta:

Days and Nights on the Grand Trunk Road Anthony Weller, 1997 Provides a travel narrative for a journey along one of the oldest and most perilous roads in the world through Pakistan and India The Grand Trunk Road, Khyber to Calcutta John Wiles, 1972 The Great Trunk Road, 1972 Cultural Landscapes of South Asia Kapila Silva, Amita Sinha, 2016-10-14 Winner of the Environmental Design Research Association's 2018 Achievement Award The pluralism of South Asia belies any singular reading of its heritage In spite of this diversity its cultural traditions retain certain attributes that are at their core South Asian in their capacity to self organize enact and reinvent cultural memories and in their ability to retain an intimate connection with nature and landscape This volume focuses on the notion of cultural landscape as a medium integrating multiple forms of heritage and points to a new paradigm for conservation practices in the South Asian context Even though the construct of cultural landscape has been accepted as a category of heritage its potent use in heritage management in general and within the South Asian context in particular has not been widely studied The volume challenges the prevalent views of heritage management in South Asia that are entrenched in colonial legacies and contemporary global policy frameworks

Around the World on a Bicycle Fred A. Birchmore, 2020 This classic once hard to find travelogue recalls one of the very first around the world bicycle treks Filled with rarely matched feats of endurance and determination Around the World on a Bicycle tells of a young cyclist's ever changing and maturing worldview as he ventures through forty countries on the eve of World War II It is an exuberant youthful account harking back to a time when the exploits of Richard Byrd Amelia Earhart and other adventurers stirred the popular imagination In 1935 Fred A Birchmore left the small American town of Athens Georgia to continue his college studies in Europe In his spare time Birchmore toured the continent on a one speed bike he called Bucephalus after the name of Alexander the Great's horse A born wanderer Birchmore broadened his travels to include the British Isles and even the Mediterranean After a lengthy unplanned detour in Egypt Birchmore put his studies on hold pointed Bucephalus eastward and just kept going From desert valleys to frozen peaks from palace promenades to muddy jungle trails Birchmore saw it all on his eighteen month twenty five thousand mile odyssey Some of the people he encountered had never seen a bike or for that matter an Anglo European As a good travel experience should Birchmore's trip changed his outlook on strangers Always daring outgoing and energetic he now saw an innate goodness in people In between bone breaking spills wild animal attacks and privation of all kinds Birchmore learned that he had little to fear from human encounters That he traveled through a world on the brink of global war makes this lesson even more remarkable and timeless

Geography of the South Asian Subcontinent Aijazuddin Ahmad, 2009 This book attempts to explore the possibility of discovering the roots of unity of the South Asian countries Describing the nations nationalities and nationalism in Afghanistan Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal Bhutan Sri Lanka Maldives and India It makes a comprehensive study of their geographical features shared history and political evolution Taking a close look at their shifting identities it also presents a detailed account of their society and social formations ethnic antecedents race and caste regions and regionalism culture realms languages and economic as well as human development The New Expatriates Anne-Meike Fechter, Katie Walsh, 2013-09-13 While scholarship on migration has been thriving for decades little attention has been paid to professionals from Europe and America who move temporarily to destinations beyond the West Such migrants are marginalised and depoliticised by debates on immigration policy and thus there is an urgent need to develop nuanced understanding of these more privileged movements In many ways these are the modern day equivalents of colonial settlers and expatriates yet the continuities in their migration practices have rarely been considered The New Expatriates advances our understanding of contemporary mobile professionals by engaging with postcolonial theories of race culture and identity The volume brings together authors and research from across a wide range of disciplines seeking to evaluate the significance of the past in shaping contemporary expatriate mobilities and highlighting postcolonial continuities in relation to people practices and imaginations Acknowledging the resonances across a range of geographical sites in Asia Africa and the Middle East the chapters consider the particularity of postcolonial contexts while enabling comparative perspectives A focus on race and culture is often obscured by assumptions about class occupation and skill but this volume explicitly examines the way in which whiteness and imperial relationships continue to shape the migration experiences of Euro American skilled migrants as they seek out new places to live and work This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies Their Language of Love Bapsi Sidhwa, 2013-02-15 In this brand new collection of stories Bapsi Sidhwa returns to chronicling the lives and loves of those on both sides of the Indo Pak border A wife worries for her family's survival during the 1965 Indo Pak war A mother is horrified when she learns that her daughter wants to marry her American boyfriend An American housewife living in Lahore has a tempestuous affair with a Pakistani minister An aged matriarch travels to the USA to discover she must confront a traumatic memory from her past Finely nuanced and laced with Sidhwa's sharply comic observations this is a stellar collection of tales from one of the subcontinent's most important and beloved writers Indian Year Book Sir Stanley Reed, 1929 Issues for 1919-47 include Who's who in India 1948 Who's who in India and Pakistan Travelers' Tales India James O'Reilly, Larry Habegger, 2009-11-01 India is among the most difficult and most rewarding of places to travel Some have said India stands for I'll Never Do It Again Many more are drawn back time after time because India is the best show on earth the best bazaar of human experiences that can be visited in a lifetime India dissolves ideas about what it means to be alive and its people give new meaning to compassion perseverance ingenuity and friendship India monsoon and marigold dung and dust colors and corpses smoke and ash snow and endless myth is a cruel unrelenting place of ineffable sweetness Much like life itself Journey to the Kumbh Mela in Allahabad the world's biggest party with David Yeadon and take A Bath for Fifteen Million People greet the monsoon with Alexander Frater where the Indian and Pacific Oceans meet track the endangered Indian One Horned Rhinoceros through the jungles of Assam with
