The Graybeards The Letters Of Major Lyman Allen Of The 37th Regiment Iowa Volunteers:

The Graybeards Lyman Allen, 1998 Lyman Allen was born 17 September 1808 in Eaton New York His parents were Asaph Allen and Lois K He married Sally Brown in 1830 in Vermont They had five children He married Hepsy S W Baldwin a widow with three children in 1856 in Iowa City Iowa His step daughter Julia Baldwin was born 4 September 1843 in New York She married Mark Allen in 1868 They had four children Emancipation, the Union Army, and the Reelection of Abraham Lincoln Jonathan W. White, 2014-06-09 The Union army's overwhelming vote for Abraham Lincoln's reelection in 1864 has led many Civil War scholars to conclude that the soldiers supported the Republican Party and its effort to abolish slavery In Emancipation the Union Army and the Reelection of Abraham Lincoln Jonathan W White challenges this reigning paradigm in Civil War historiography arguing instead that the soldier vote in the presidential election of 1864 is not a reliable index of the army's ideological motivation or political sentiment Although 78 percent of the soldiers' votes were cast for Lincoln White contends that this was not wholly due to a political or social conversion to the Republican Party Rather he argues historians have ignored mitigating factors such as voter turnout intimidation at the polls and how soldiers voted in nonpresidential elections in 1864 While recognizing that many soldiers changed their views on slavery and emancipation during the war White suggests that a considerable number still rejected the Republican platform and that many who voted for Lincoln disagreed with his views on slavery He likewise explains that many northerners considered a vote for the Democratic ticket as treasonous and an admission of defeat Using previously untapped court martial records from the National Archives as well as manuscript collections from across the country White convincingly revises many commonly held assumptions about the Civil War era and provides a deeper understanding of the Union Army Colonels in Blue--Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin Roger D. Hunt, 2019-07-05 The sixth in a series documenting Union army colonels this biographical dictionary lists regimental commanders from Illinois Iowa Minnesota and Wisconsin A brief sketch of each is included many published here for the first time giving a synopsis of Civil War service and biographical details along with photos where available Military Bibliography of the Civil War: Regimental publications and personal narratives. Union and Confederate biographies. General references. Armed forces. Campaigns and battles, 2003 Volume IV Compiled and revised by Silas Felton 1063 pp revised with books missed in vols I II and III regimental publications personal narratives biographies campaigns and battles Northern and Southern Felton's new compilation is without peer He covers the subject from five different perspectives Regimental Publications and Personal Narratives Union and Confederate Biographies General References Armed Forces and Campaigns and Battles And making the work extremely useful the last 236 pages contain a complete Index of Authors of Volumes I through IV as well as a new Index of Titles in the Revised Volume IV Furthermore to clear up confusion created by the multiple names often used by Confederate units during the war artillery batteries in particular which carried a state designation but were commonly known by the battery commander's name Felton has cited a written work with a single number designation but indexed and listed it under its common appellation to aid the researcher and eliminate confusion
