The Great Cellists:

The Great Cellists Margaret Campbell, 1989 The instrument we know today developed from the bass violin and came into general use in the seventeenth century Through her research of performers and teachers from Boccherini and Romberg to Casals and Jacqueline du Pre author Margaret Campbell presents a rich picture of traditions handed down the generations and developed internationally and recreates the magic of the greatest cellists in history

Guilhermina Suggia: Cellist Anita Mercier, 2017-07-05 Born in 1885 in Porto Portugal to a middle class musical family Guilhermina Suggia began playing cello at the age of five A child prodigy she was already a seasoned performer when she won a scholarship to study with Julius Klengel in Leipzig at the age of sixteen Suggia lived in Paris with fellow cellist Pablo Casals for several years before World War I in a professional and personal partnership that was as stormy as it was unconventional When they separated Suggia moved to London where she built a spectacularly successful solo career Suggia's virtuosity and musicianship along with the magnificent style and stage presence famously captured in Augustus John's portrait made her one of the most sought after concert artists of her day In 1927 she married Dr Jos Asimiro Carteador Mena and settled down to a comfortable life divided between Portugal and England Throughout the 1930s Suggia remained one of the most respected musicians in Europe She partnered on stage with many famous instrumentalists and conductors and completed numerous BBC broadcasts The war years kept her at home in Portugal where she focused on teaching but she returned to England directly after the war and resumed performing When Suggia died in 1950 her will provided for the establishment of several scholarship funds for young cellists including England's prestigious Suggia Gift Mercier's study of Suggia's letters and other writings reveal an intelligent warm and generous character an artist who was enormously dedicated knowledgeable and self disciplined Suggia was one of the first women to make a career of playing the cello at a time when prejudice against women playing this traditionally masculine instrument was still strong A role model for many other musicians she was herself a fearless pioneer

Gaspar Cassadó Gabrielle Kaufman, 2016-12-08 Barcelonian Gaspar Cassad 1897 1966 was one of the greatest cello virtuosos of the twentieth century and a notable composer and arranger leaving a vast and heterogeneous legacy In this book Gabrielle Kaufman provides the first full length scholarly work dedicated to Cassad containing the results of seven years of research into his life and legacy after following the cellist's steps through Spain France Italy and Japan The study presents in depth descriptions of the three main parts of Cassad's creative output composition transcription and performance especially focusing on Cassad's plural and multi faceted creativity which is examined from both cultural and historical perspectives Cassad's role within the evolution of twentieth century cello performance is thoroughly examined including a discussion regarding the musical and technical aspects of performing Cassad's works aimed directly at performers The study presents the first attempt at a comprehensive catalogue of Cassad's works both original and transcribed as well as his recordings using a number of new archival sources and testimonies In addition the composer's significance within Spanish twentieth
