The Green Road:

The Green Road Anne Enright, 2015-05-11 One of the Guardian's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century With language so vibrant it practically has a pulse Enright makes an exquisitely drawn case for the possibility of growth love and transformation at any age People From internationally acclaimed author Anne Enright comes a shattering novel set in a small town on Ireland's Atlantic coast The Green Road is a tale of family and fracture compassion and selfishness a book about the gaps in the human heart and how we strive to fill them Spanning thirty years The Green Road tells the story of Rosaleen matriarch of the Madigans a family on the cusp of either coming together or falling irreparably apart As they grow up Rosaleen's four children leave the west of Ireland for lives they could have never imagined in Dublin New York and Mali West Africa In her early old age their difficult wonderful mother announces that she's decided to sell the house and divide the proceeds Her adult children come back for a last Christmas with the feeling that their childhoods are being erased their personal history bought and sold A profoundly moving work about a family's desperate attempt to recover the relationships they've lost and forge the ones they never had The Green Road is Enright's most mature accomplished and unforgettable novel to date

The Green Road Anne Enright, 2015-05-05 By the Booker Award winning bestselling author of The Gathering The Green Road is Anne Enright's virtuoso new novel her most compelling and powerful to date A darkly glinting novel set mainly in a small town on Ireland's Atlantic coast The Green Road is a story of fracture and family selfishness and compassion a book about the gaps in the human heart and how we learn to fill them The children of Rosaleen Madigan grow up in the West of Ireland in a world that is about to change When her oldest brother Dan announces he will enter the priesthood young Hanna watches her mother retreat in sorrow to her bed In the years that follow three of the children leave home for lives they could never have imagined Dan for the frenzy of New York under the shadow of AIDS Emmet for the backlands of Mali where he learns the fragility of love and order actress Hanna for modern day Dublin and the trials of motherhood In her early old age their difficult wonderful mother Rosaleen decides to sell the family home the house she was born in and where she raised her own family with all its ghosts and memories Her adult children visit for Christmas carrying with them the complications of their present lives and the old needs of childhood as they are brought face to face with their mother's ageing and the effects her decision will have on them all In this extraordinary and intimate story of one family Enright has also given us a portrait of our times This is a major work of fiction by one of the most exciting writers of our time

Loizides, B. Schmidt, 2016-05-26 The field of electronic publishing has grown exponentially in the last two decades but we are still in the middle of this digital transformation With technologies coming and going for all kinds of reasons the distribution of economic technological and discursive power continues to be negotiated This book presents the proceedings of the 20th Conference on Electronic

Publishing Elpub held in G ttingen Germany in June 2016 This year s conference explores issues of positioning and power in academic publishing and it brings together world leading stakeholders such as academics practitioners policymakers students and entrepreneurs from a wide variety of fields to exchange information and discuss the advent of innovations in the areas of electronic publishing as well as reflect on the development in the field over the last 20 years Topics covered in the papers include how to maintain the quality of electronic publications modeling processes and the increasingly prevalent issue of open access as well as new systems database repositories and datasets This overview of the field will be of interest to all those who work in or make use of electronic publishing The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction Liam

Harte,2020-10-15 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction presents authoritative essays by thirty five leading scholars of Irish fiction They provide in depth assessments of the breadth and achievement of novelists and short story writers whose collective contribution to the evolution and modification of these unique art forms has been far out of proportion to Ireland s small size The volume brings a variety of critical perspectives to bear on the development of modern Irish fiction situating authors texts and genres in their social intellectual and literary historical contexts The Handbook s coverage encompasses an expansive range of topics including the recalcitrant atavisms of Irish Gothic fiction nineteenth century Irish women s fiction and its influence on emergent modernism and cultural nationalism the diverse modes of irony fabulism and social realism that characterize the fiction of the Irish Literary Revival the fearless aesthetic radicalism of James Joyce the jolting narratological experiments of Samuel Beckett Flann O Brien and M irt n Cadhain the fate of the realist and modernist traditions in the work of Elizabeth Bowen Frank O Connor Se n O Faol in and Mary Lavin and in that of their ambivalent heirs Edna O Brien John McGahern and John Banville the subversive treatment of sexuality and gender in Northern Irish women s fiction written during and after the Troubles the often neglected genres of Irish crime fiction science fiction and fiction for children the many hued novelistic responses to the experiences of famine revolution and emigration and the variety and vibrancy of post millennial fiction from both parts of Ireland Readably written and employing a wealth of original research The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction illuminates a distinguished literary tradition that has altered the shape of world literature The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First-Century Irish Writing Anne Fogarty,Eugene

O'Brien,2024-12-20 This Companion brings together leading scholars in the field of Irish studies to explore the significance of twenty first century Irish writing and its flourishing popularity worldwide Focusing on Irish writing published or performed in the twenty first century this volume explores genres modes and styles of writing that are current relevant and distinctive in today s classrooms Examining a host of innovative key writers including Sally Rooney Marion Keyes Sebastian Barry Paul Howard Claire Kilroy Micheal O Siadhail Donal Ryan Marina Carr Enda Walsh Martin McDonagh Colette Bryce Leanne Quinn Sin ad Morrissey Paula Meehan Ailbhe N Ghearbhuigh and Doireann Ni Ghr ofa This text investigates the sociocultural and theoretical contexts of their aesthetic achievements and innovations Furthermore The Routledge Companion to Twenty First

Century Irish Writing traces the expansion of Irish writing offering fresh insight to Irish identities across the boundaries of race class and gender With its distinctive contemporary focus and comprehensive scope this multifaceted volume provides the first significant literary history of twenty first century Irish literature The register of electors to vote in the choice of members to serve in parliament for the eastern division of the county of Norfolk, at any election which shall take place between the first day of November, 1840, and the first day of November, 1841 ,1841 Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal, Or Temporary Character Great Britain,1930 The 17th International Conference Interdisciplinarity in Engineering Liviu Moldovan,Adrian Gligor,2024-03-28 This book contains research papers that were accepted for presentation at the 17th International Conference on Interdisciplinarity in Engineering INTER ENG 2023 which was held on 5 6 October 2023 in the city of T rgu Mure Romania The general scope of the conference Towards transition for a more competitive European industry in a smart safe and sustainable future is proposing a new approach related to the development of a new generation of smart factories grounded on the manufacturing and assembly process digitalization It is related to advance manufacturing technology lean manufacturing sustainable manufacturing additive manufacturing manufacturing tools and equipment It is a leading international professional and scientific forum of great interest for engineers and scientists who can read in this book research works contributions and recent developments as well as current practices in advanced fields of engineering Modernity and the Construction of Sacred Space Aaron French,Katharina Waldner,2024-07-01 This volume focuses on the connection between modern design and architectural practices and the construction of sacred spaces Not only language and ritual but space place and architecture play a significant role in constructing special or religious spaces However this concept of a constructed sacred space remains undertheorized in religious studies and the history of art and architecture in general This volume therefore revisits the question of a modern sacred space from an interdisciplinary perspective focusing on religion space and architecture during the emergence of the modern period and up until contemporary times Revisiting the ways in which modern architects and artists have endeavored to create sacred spaces and buildings for the modern world will address the underlying questions of how religious ideas especially those related to esotericism and to alternative religiosities have transformed the way sacred spaces are conceptualized today
