

The background of the entire image is a painting. The top half shows a person in a white shirt and dark pants, seen from the side, sketching a landscape with a house and trees. The bottom half shows a man in a red shirt, blue jeans, and a cowboy hat walking a white cow down a dirt road. The overall style is impressionistic with visible brushstrokes.

Excerpt from Pioneer Sketches Nebraska and Texas This little volume was begun while the compiler was editor of the Nuckolls County Herald Nelson Nebraska in the spring of 1910 and was reprinted from a series of papers published in that newspaper In May of that year I moved to Hico Texas where I was elected editor of the News Review After entering my editorial duties in the latter office I resumed the publication of the sketches but concerning Texas history only These sketches are not as complete as they might have been but are just as the articles appeared in the two above papers It was not our intention to make a volume beautiful but merely to record and preserve these items of history for future generations to read If these chapters have entertained you and incidentally instructed you we feel repaid for our efforts About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Poems and Sketches of Nebraska (Classic Reprint) Addison Erwin
