

"The funeral might fill you in on the background a bit more, Sloan." The superintendent had rubbed his hands together like an undertaker. "Nothing like a funeral for finding out who's related to who."

"No, sir."

"A Will's better, of course. We haven't seen that, have we, Sloan?"

"Not yet, sir."

"Nothing on the books about him?"

"Just that he had a firearms certificate, sir. All in order, I checked. The local constable says he was a pillar of society down their way. Old Calleshire family, too . . ."

Superintendent Leeyes had snorted gently at that. "Doesn't mean a thing these days. When they're bad, Sloan, they're very bad indeed."

Gregor Mendel, the monk of Brinn, might have seen fit to agree with the superintendent. Sloan certainly didn't.

He shook his head. "No, sir. Our chap out in the village was quite happy about him. He was on the Bench, too, you know . . ."

Leeyes's snort hadn't been quite so gentle that time. "All right, Sloan, all right, have it your own way. Either the deceased led a blameless life or death wiped the slate clean. Now, where does that get us?"

So far it had got Detective Inspector Sloan and Detective Constable Crosby precisely as far as the very back pew of St. Leonard's Church, Constance Parva, just before noon on the morning of Friday, August 27th, for the funeral of one William Fent of Strontfield Park in the County of Calleshire.
