Systematic Theology, Volume 1, Fourth Edition James Leo Garrett, 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett's system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material The Christian Century May 29 June 5 1991 No book that I know is more loaded with biblical and theological facts than this one The prodigious research that must have gone into the preparation of this volume is truly mind boggling Faith and Mission Fall 1991 Garrett has provided a massive and scholarly systematic theology from a thoroughly conservative and comprehensive viewpoint The work is well documented in both biblical and historical scholarship and will prove to be a classic William Hendrickson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary One of the most comprehensive concise books of its type available it should receive wide use in the classroom and in the study Robert H Culpepper Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This fifth volume of New documents illustrating early Christianity is different in conception from its predecessors It focuses on several questions concerning the linguistic analysis of the New Testament from the particular perspective of the usefulness of the documentary sources for such study Back cover

Introducing Biblical Hermeneutics Craig G. Bartholomew, 2015-11-10 2016 Word Guild Award Academic category Honorable mention Grace Irwin Prize Renowned scholar Craig Bartholomew coauthor of the bestselling textbook The Drama of Scripture writes in his main area of expertise hermeneutics to help seminarians pursue a lifetime of biblical interpretation Integrating the latest research in theology philosophy and biblical studies this substantive hermeneutics textbook is robustly theological in its approach takes philosophical hermeneutics seriously keeps the focus throughout on the actual process of interpreting Scripture and argues that biblical interpretation should be centered in the context and service of the church an approach that helps us hear God's address today

Linguistic essays G. H. R. Horsley, 1989-01-01 The Oracles Against Babylon in Jeremiah 50-51 David James

Reimer,1993 Historically the study of Jeremiah chapters 50 51 has focused on two questions was this the authentic word of Jeremiah and what was their structure Given the advances in the understanding of Hebrew poetry the alleged growth of the biblical text the language of prophetic speech and the history of the exile these chapters are ripe for renewed study This thesis investigates Jeremiah 50 51 in four parts poetry and structure text and tradition forms and images and that which is related to anti Babylonian traditions Imagining Creation Markham (Mark) Geller,Mineke Schipper,2007-10-01 Imagining Creation is a collection of views on creation by noted authors from different disciplines Topics include creation accounts and iconography from Mesopotamia and Egypt and cosmologies from India and Africa Special attention is devoted to creation in the Scriptures Bible and Koran and related oral traditions on Genesis from Slavonic Europe as well as Kabbalah Some of the creations myths are earlier and some later than the Bible while a number of the discussed texts offer alternative approaches to the beginnings of the universe The contributions provide many new perspectives on the origins of man and his world from diverse cultures The volume is the proceedings of a symposium on creation stories held at University College London

Gregorianum ,1987 Jewish and Christian Communal Identities in the Roman World Yair Furstenberg,2016-06-21 Jews and Christians under the Roman Empire shared a unique sense of community Set apart from their civic and cultic surroundings both groups resisted complete assimilation into the dominant political and social structures However Jewish communities differed from their Christian counterparts in their overall patterns of response to the surrounding challenges They exhibit diverse levels of integration into the civic fabric of the cities of the Empire and display contrary attitudes towards the creation of trans local communal networks The variety of local case studies examined in this volume offers an integrated image of the multiple factors both internal and external which determined the role of communal identity in creating a sense of belonging among Jews and Christians under Imperial constraints
