demands from the heart of the movement of movements Based on the work of the first two annual meetings of the WSF this classic collection not only set out the initial aims of the movements that came together it also paved the way for the theoretical study of new social movements their multiple and participatory character Today as many crises affect all our lives it is time to revisit the original demands of a global solidarity movement united in its determination to fight against the concentration of wealth the proliferation of poverty and inequalities and the destruction of our earth and to reconstitute a global left

Why Loiter? Shilpa Phadke, Sameera Khan, Shilpa Ranade, 2011 Presenting an original take on women s safety in the cities of twenty first century India Why Loiter maps the exclusions and negotiations that women from different classes and communities encounter in the nation s urban public spaces Basing this book on more than three years of research in Mumbai Shilpa Phadke Sameera Khan and Shilpa Ranade argue that though women s access to urban public space has increased they still do not have an equal claim to public space in the city And they raise the question can women s access to public space be viewed in isolation from that of other marginal groups Going beyond the problem of the real and implied risks associated with women s presence in public they draw from feminist theory to argue that only by celebrating loitering a radical act for most Indian women can a truly equal global city be created

Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality, 1848-2016 Félix Germain, Silyane Larcher, 2018-10-01 Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality 1848 2016 explores how black women in France itself the French Caribbean Gor e Dakar Rufisque and Saint Louis experienced and reacted to French colonialism and how gendered readings of colonization decolonization and social movements cast new light on the history of French colonization and of black France In

Precarious Lives and Marginal Bodies in North Africa Hervé Anderson Tchumkam, 2021-03-12 Marginal Bodies and Precarious Lives in North Africa Homo Expendibilis presents an examination of North African literature situated at the crossroads of literary analysis political philosophy and sociology The author analyzes social categories in relation to civil and social protections and in particular the ways in which disruptions to these protections can lead to social degeneration The author s analysis starts from the premise that precarious lives in North Africa have become true bodies of exception In other words they are deemed dangerous expendable and unworthy of the rights and treatment accorded to full citizens Thus the author assesses portrayals of violence in contemporary literature as a crystallization of the existing disjunction between the socially disqualified and those who wield colonial political and religious power Moreover the author argues that in order to understand contemporary politics and the current climate of insecurity a deeper understanding of precarity in North Africa from colonial times to the present is crucial By affirming their right to exist the author argues that the marginal bodies of North Africa offer unique insights into the society that marginalized them and thus from the often inaudible and invisible periphery they nevertheless challenge the dominant ideas of the center
