

Progress Tracking

Instructors can turn on the Progress Tracking feature in a course. This allows you to track your course progress related to course content, assignments, and tests.

Access

You can review your progress while you are on the Course Content page. Each item on the course content page will have a circle beside it. The circle denotes the progress.

The appearance of the circle undergoes changes depending on your progress:

1. When you haven't accessed the item yet, the circle remains empty.
2. Once you've opened the item or accessed it through Ally, the circle becomes partially filled.
3. When you've successfully completed the item, a green checkmark appears in the circle.
