

The image shows a traditional Yoruba shrine, likely a 'bábá' or 'mú' (spirit house). It is a small, rectangular structure with a steeply pitched, thatched roof made of dried palm fronds. The walls are constructed from woven palm leaves or similar natural materials. In the center of the front wall is a small, arched opening. Inside this opening is a carved wooden figure, possibly a deity or ancestor spirit, depicted in a seated or standing posture. The shrine is situated outdoors, with lush green foliage and trees visible in the background. The ground in front of the shrine appears to be a dirt path or clearing. The overall scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

The Healing Power Of Sacrifice:

The Healing Power of Sacrifice Ifayemi Eleburuibon, 2000 The term sacrifice needs to be further explained in the Yoruba religion cultural perspectives Its connotation transcends the mere offer of gifts to the poor Sacrifice is propitiatory This is why it is otherwise known as Etutu that which propitiates In another vain sacrifice can be seen as an atonement a carrier of bad fortunes and mishaps Through the practice of sacrifice all forms of adversities are rubbed off the path of man and nation and thus usher in positive fortunes of various magnitudes and complexions The place of sacrifice therefore should not be undermined especially when one remembers that evil and good fortunes are like twin sisters almost always each other s concomitant

The Healing Power of Self Love Oscar Bamwebaze Bamuhigire, 2009-02 In the field of alcoholism and drug addiction treatment there have always been questions for which there were no satisfactory answers Is substance abuse is a problem of discipline or a disease Why is it that most alcoholics drug addicts do not seek for or receive treatment Why is it that only 5 10% of alcoholics drug addicts respond to treatment Why do untreated addicts have a better chance at breaking the bond of addiction than addicts who get treated Why has the incidence of recovery without the help of formal treatment continued to rise Are the successes of Alcoholics Anonymous A A nothing more than spontaneous remission Why are some people able to quit their addiction without treatment while others only get worse after treatment Why does treatment have a negative effect Why are some treatment programs more effective than others Why has the world continued to experience a steady increase in the rate of addiction and self destruction Why is it that 1 in 2 Americans has a diagnosable mental disorder each year and 81 Americans commit suicide every day Why do non Hispanic blacks bear a disproportionate burden of disease injury death and disability Why do the most successful treatment programs for addicts have a spiritual component Why do non white people suffer from a high rate of substance abuse and self destruction Why does Africa have the highest rate of suicide poverty and disease in the world Why are some treatment programs more effective than others Etc In a unique blend of psychology psychiatry metaphysics medicine orient and western religions The Healing Power Of Self Love provides answers to these and many more questions In making its revolutionary contribution to the scientific world it also explains how addicts can enhance their chances of recovery from addiction through the treatment programs of their choice by utilizing the ancient tools of discipline lateral thinking and insight from the life experiences of the world s greatest leaders Even though this book was initially designed to meet the needs of alcoholics and drug addicts in treatment it may be of great value to people who are struggling with other types of addiction and those who are faced with major obstacles to their self realization or self actualization

Bushnell Centenary General Association of Connecticut,1902 Minutes of the General Association of Connecticut at the One Hundred and Ninety-third Annual Meeting Held in Hartford, June 17, 18, 1902 General Association of Connecticut,1902 Boundless Grace Chris N van der Merwe,2024-05-01 The message of the New Testament is that Jesus took the punishment of sin meant for men upon Himself to redeem those who believe in Him This belief in the transference of suffering from men to Jesus creates a myriad of questions for many people Was Jesus s brutal death truly necessary Why do God require a sacrifice instead of just forgiving unconditionally Is God the Father restricted in His willingness to forgive The idea of heaven and hell stirs up doubt and fear in many fear for the eternal damnation of hell and doubt if they will ever be able to make it to heaven How could a loving God the God of love who is preached by the Christian faith allow for people to go to hell The author gives no pretence that he has the definitive answers to all these difficult questions or that he could fully uncover the extensive meaning of what the life death and resurrection of Jesus truly entails But he sincerely hopes the new thoughts that these writings might evoke will cast some light on these darker questions for those who struggle with them
