Animated TV Series Winner John Newbery Medal What does it take for a student with hearing loss and a hearing aid to become a superhero Starting at a new school is scary especially with a giant hearing aid strapped to your chest At her old school everyone in Cece s class was deaf Here she s different She s sure the kids are staring at the Phonic Ear the powerful aid that will help her hear her teacher Too bad it also seems certain to repel potential friends Then Cece makes a startling discovery With the Phonic Ear she can hear her teacher not just in the classroom but anywhere her teacher is in the school in the hallway in the teacher s lounge in the bathroom This is power Maybe even superpower Cece is on her way to becoming El Deafo Listener for All But the funny thing about being a superhero is that it s just another way of feeling different and lonely Can Cece channel her powers into finding the thing she wants most a true friend El Deafo is a book that will entertain children give hearing impaired children a hero of their own and challenge others to consider an experience unlike their own Like other great works for children it provides the opportunity for young readers to consider how they would act or react in a similar situation helping to build empathy and understanding through the power of story      Join in Learning to Listen Ho,

ABOUT THE BOOK A life changing story for hearing impaired children and their families Rivers Walk tells the story of a vibrant strong willed hearing impaired bunny who discovers just how much fun wearing hearing aids can be Wonderfully illustrated and written Rivers Walk captures the imagination and encourages hearing impaired children to embrace and wear their hearing aids This story was inspired by a very real and very special little girl named Rivers a student at The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf MOSD Located in the Memphis community for more than fifty years and serving families from all over the Mid South The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf works to empower deaf children to listen learn and talk At MOSD no sign language is used Instead it employs speech and language therapies and audiological services in conjunction with preschool classes to help profoundly deaf and hard of hearing children ages birth to six years old These specialized techniques help the children develop the necessary listening and spoken language skills to become a part of rather than
