Higher Education in the Making George Allan, 2012-02-01 George Allan argues that the so called culture wars in higher education are the result of the dogmatic and unyielding certainty that both canonists and anti canonists bring to any discussion of how best to organize an undergraduate curriculum He then proposes a middle way Drawing from William James John Dewey and Alfred North Whitehead he contrasts the absolutist claims of both canonists and anti canonists with a fallibilist approach and argues for a more pragmatic canon that is normative and always in need of renovation A wide variety of voices are heard in Allan's conversation about the nature and meaning of an education canon including philosophers Aristotle Descartes Arthur Lovejoy Hannah Arendt Spengler Emerson Lyotard and Rorty Contemporary voices include Eva Brann Charles Anderson Francis Oakley Martha Nussbaum Gerald Graff Henry Louis Gates Jr and Bill Readings Passing and the Rise of the African American Novel Maria Giulia Fabi, 2001 Passing and the Rise of the African American Novel restores to its rightful place a body of American literature that has long been overlooked dismissed or misjudged This insightful reconsideration of nineteenth century African American fiction uncovers the literary artistry and ideological complexity of a body of work that laid the foundation for the Harlem Renaissance and changed the course of American letters Focusing on the trope of passing black characters lightskinned enough to pass for white M Giulia Fabi shows how early

African American authors such as William Wells Brown Frank J Webb Charles W Chesnutt Sutton E Griggs James Weldon Johnson Frances E W Harper and Edward A Johnson transformed traditional representations of blackness and moved beyond the tragic mulatto motif Celebrating a distinctive African American history culture and worldview these authors used passing to challenge the myths of racial purity and the color line Fabi examines how early black writers adapted existing literary forms including the sentimental romance the domestic novel and the utopian novel to express their convictions and concerns about slavery segregation and racism She also gives a historical overview of the canon making enterprises of African American critics from the 1850s to the 1990s and considers how their concerns about crafting a particular image for African American literature affected their perceptions of nineteenth century black fiction Blues Empress in Black Chattanooga Michelle R.
