The Guild The Architects Source Of Artists And Artisans:

The Guild Kraus Sikes, North Light Books, 1993 The Guild, 1994 The Guild Toni F. Sikes, 1992-03-01 The Architect's Source of Artists and Artisans: the Guild, 1991 The Guild® : the architect's source of artists and artisans [Anonymus AC11037674], 1992 How to Design Stained Glass Jennie French, 2012-09-06 Basic principles techniques of stained glass design Topics include design sources enlarging and reworking flat and three dimensional projects drawing techniques computer technology more 84 projects included 209 illustrations Reference Services in the Humanities Judy Reynolds, 1994-11-11 This helpful book provides practical insight into the work and environment of reference services in the humanities Librarian s mental maps of humanities reference materials must include an awareness of the metaphoric not too precise nature of many patrons queries Reference Services in the Humanities discusses the structure of literature in the humanities and how it matches or challenges mental images of the field Chapters are infused with the issues of language names and meaning within a metaphoric genre The book serves as a guide to humanist s use of metaphoric language and also as a bibliography of sources Reference Services in the Humanities contains specific references for finding materials in areas that are not traditional mainstream arts This sample of disciplines provides case studies depicting each field s particular idiosyncrasies Chapters examine the challenge of referral reference and common problems encountered in searching for answers to patrons questions The book contains a theoretical framework for interacting with patrons and addresses options for humanities reference in an electronic age This book brings together librarians and researchers who provide and manage reference services to a wide array of disciplines within the humanities Authors come from all types of libraries and represent a broad spectrum of patrons from the young student curious about the movies to practicing musicians and craftspersons This diversity provides an informative grounding for practitioners and library school students and faculty who wish to become effective reference librarians in the future Reference Services in the Humanities is divided into four sections which address research questions and challenges in selected disciplines descriptions from the field political issues in the humanities and theories and ideas for the future Specific topics explored include access to special collections censorship library resources for theater artists history research vocabulary control labeling of minorities craft information sources and much more Architecture Minnesota, 1992 The Allied Arts Sandra Alföldy, 2012-03-28 During periods of close collaboration championed by figures like John Ruskin and William Morris architecture and craft were referred to as the allied arts By the mid twentieth century however it was more common for the two disciplines to be considered distinct professional fields with architecture having little to do with studio craft The Allied Arts investigates the history of the complex relationship between craft and architecture by examining the intersection of these two areas in Canadian public buildings Sandra Alföldy explains the challenges facing the development of the field of public craft and documents the largely ignored public craft commissions of the post war era in Canada The book highlights the global concerns of material scale form ornament and identity shared by architects and craftspeople It also examines the ways in which the allied arts are mediated by institutions and the fragility of craft commissions once considered an integral part of the built environment Considering a wide range of craftspeople materials and forms from the ceramics of Jack Sures and Jordi Bonnet to the textile work of Mariette Rousseau Vermette and Carole Sabiston Alföldy celebrates the successes of architectural craftsmanship The first work of its kind The Allied Arts develops ideas about the complex relationship between architecture and craft that reach well beyond national boundaries
