About

Helping Others

www.Engdic.org

In every town, in every place,
There are hands of grace, hands of grace.

Hands that help without a pause,
Hands that champion a noble cause.

They lift, they cook, they mend, they build,
Never tired, never stilled.

Hands of doctors, hands of maids,
They're the foundation where hope is laid.

In these hands, the world finds rest,
In these hands, we find our best.
Next time you see such hands divine,
Remember yours can also shine.
