Creative Fractures M.D. Litonjua, 2011-02-01

The world is one of increasing diversity and pluralism Our world is one of the different and of the many Even the individual personality and the social self are increasingly diverse and plural This is especially evident in racial and ethnic identities The Ohioan the New Yorker the Texan all became after the cauldron of the Civil War the American Now the American is continually being hyphenated Native American African American Latino American Asian American and a host of other hyphens In the academy the dichotomy between the fox who knows many things and the hedgehog who knows one big thing Archilocus is giving way to different combinations and variations of learning teaching and expertise as demanded by and reflecting the diversity and complexity of society and world While these differences and pluralisms can lead to fragmentation these fractures can also be creative The ethnically hyphenated person who straddles two cultures need not be marginal to both but can use the riches of his her diverse experiences to cross fertilize the cultures of which they are now part and parcel The other the different especially the poor must not be marginalized pushed to the margins of society as outcasts they need to be empowered for their betterment and for the common good of society The academic well versed in several disciplines should not be considered master of none but can bring the insights of one discipline to tame the fundamentalism of another discipline and to expand the horizons of all In one form or another to a greater or lesser extent this is what I have tried to do in the essays gathered in this second collection the first being Critical Intersections 2006

The Community of the Weak
Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Joint Ventures M. D. Litonjua, 2012-10 Joint Ventures is a term used in the business world to describe two or more business enterprises that join hands and consolidate their management operations and labor force to increase their productivity to offer a more diversified array of products to increase their profitability and be a more successful business enterprise in service to their employees and society at large But it is not simply a matter of joining economic forces and resources There has to be synergy compatibility and complementarity in corporate strengths and weaknesses in corporate missions and cultures in corporate objectives and strategies such that the joint ventures result in something greater than the mere sum of their parts. This is true of joint ventures in the academic world. Interdisciplinary studies are not mere combinations of academic courses. They are or should be the mutual enrichment and mutual correction of disciplines. They can be and are about expanding the horizons of a discipline beyond its narrow confines and or correcting the constricting assumptions, values and prescriptions of doctrinaire theoretical viewpoints. These have been the basic assumption and the goal, the working framework and agenda behind the essays gathered here as they were in my earlier collections Critical Intersections 2006 and Creative Fractures 2011. In my teaching and writing I seek to bring to bear insights and perspectives from religious studies and the social sciences, their critical intersections, their creative fractures and their joint ventures to elucidate discussions, controversies and explanations.

Critical Intersections M.D. Litonjua, 2006-06-19. Life is all about intersections. Living is where sorrow meets joy, where pain encounters ecstasy, where the weakness of the flesh is buoyed by the strength of faith, where love conquers all doubts and betrayals. Marriage is for better and worse, for richer and poorer, in sickness and health, it is for life and death. Spirituality is the arduous integration of life's dispositions and tendencies, of one's urges and habits, for the whole to reach out in transcendence to one's fellow human beings and to God. Growth to Christian maturity is actualizing the intersecting because of the cruciform demands of love of God and love of neighbor, which follows the path that leads from Good Friday to Easter Sunday. Academic life is also becoming one of intersections. After the increasing structural differentiation and functional specialization characteristic of modernity, academic disciplines are critically intersecting and cross-fertilizing with each other for integration, enrichment and further enlightenment. The behavioral sciences need genetics and biology for a more adequate explanation of human behavior. Homo oeconomicus of neoclassical economics is complemented by the realities of power of homo sociologicus. Theology calls on the social sciences in addition to its ancient ancilla philosophy to make moral sense of social and global problems. Interdisciplinary courses try to make connections between the disciplines students have studied and to integrate the breadth and the depth of knowledge they have been exposed to.

Religious Perspectives on Business Ethics Thomas O'Brien, Scott Paeth, 2007. In the first anthology of its kind, Thomas O'Brien and Scott Paeth have gathered unique pieces from across religious perspectives to illustrate the growing influence and contribution of religion to the field of business ethics. Tackling such wide-ranging subjects as Jewish environmental ethics, Zen in the workplace and Christian social ethics, this text is a valuable addition to business ethics courses.

International Review of Modern Sociology, 2008. From Culture Wars to Common Ground, 2000-01-01. What is the status of the American family? How is it changing? Are these changes making anything better? What is the future of the family? Does religion offer a positive answer? Not since Habits of the Heart has one book confronted these important issues with such personal and societal impact. This groundbreaking study argues for the creation of a new family ethic that must be central to the agendas of both contemporary society and the church. The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization

Collected Papers V. Phenomenology and the Social Sciences Alfred Schutz, 2011-08-31

This book shows how phenomenology of the social sciences differs from positivistic approaches and presents Schutz's theory of relevance, a key feature of his own phenomenology of the social world. It begins with Schutz's appraisal of how Husserl influenced him and continues with exchanges between Schutz and Eric Voegelin, Felix Kaufmann, Aron Gurwitsch, and Talcott Parsons. This book presents for the first time Schutz's incisive criticisms of T. S. Eliot's theory of culture.

Catechizing Culture Andrew Orta, 2004

A groundbreaking study of the contemporary encounter between Catholic missionaries and Aymara Indians in highland Bolivia, this book is the first ethnography to focus both on the evangelizers and the evangelized. Elucidating the workings of that original global institution, the Catholic Church, Andrew Orta explores the pastoral shift away from liberation theology that dominated Latin American missionization up until the mid-1980s to the recent theology of inculturation.
