No Ways Tired: The Journey for Professionals of Color in Student Affairs Monica Galloway Burke,U. Monique Robinson,2019-08-01 Even though diversity is currently conveyed as a ubiquitous principle within institutions of higher education professionals of color still face issues such as discrimination the glass ceiling lack of mentoring and limited access to career networks Unfortunately an open channel does not exist for professionals of color to express their frustrations and genuine concerns The narratives in No Ways Tired present a powerful voice about the experiences of student affairs professionals of color in higher education including intersecting identities such as race class and gender Furthermore the narratives are nuggets of personal truth that can serve as a lens for professionals of color who wish to develop strategies to succeed as they traverse their careers in higher education Through the sharing of their visions of success lessons learned and cautionary tales the authors openly offer insights about how they have created a way to survive and thrive within higher education in spite of challenges and distractions They also articulate a vision where student affairs professionals of color can develop fully be authentic use their agency and effectively contribute This book includes recommendations for professionals of color at all levels within higher education and ways to construct opportunities to flourish The ultimate goal for this book is to promote discussions regarding how professionals of color can be more proactive in developing strategies that are conducive to their professional and personal success as they navigate their higher education careers

Empowering Women in Higher Education and Student Affairs Penny A. Pasque,Shelley Errington Nicholson,2023-07-03 Co published with How do we interrupt the current paradigms of sexism in the academy How do we construct a new and inclusive gender paradigm that resists the dominant values of the patriarchy And why are these agendas important not just for women but for higher education as a whole These are the questions that these extensive and rich analyses of the historical and contemporary roles of women in higher education as administrators faculty students and student affairs professionals seek constructively to answer In doing so they address the intersection of gender and women s other social identities such as of race ethnicity sexual orientation class and ability This book addresses the experiences and position of women students from application to college through graduate school and the barriers they encounter the continuing inequalities in the rates of promotion and progression of women and other marginalized groups to positions of authority and the gap in earnings between men and women and pays particular attention to how race and other social markers impact such disparities contextualizing them across all institutional types Written collaboratively by an intergenerational group of women men and transgender people with different social identities feminist perspectives and professional identities and who in the process built upon each other's work this volume constitutes a call to educators and scholars to work toward centering feminist and other marginalized perspectives in their practice and research in order to equitably address the evolving complexities of college and university life Employing a wide range of theoretical lenses examining a variety of models of practice and giving voice to a diversity of personal experiences through narrative this is a major contribution to the scholarship on women in higher education This is a book for all women in the academy who want to better understand their experience and to dismantle the remaining barriers of sexism and oppression for themselves and future generations of students An ACPA Publication
