Sixth Lamentation

John H. Walton

Sixth Lamentation:

The Sixth Lamentation William Brodrick, 2004-07-01 When a suspected Nazi war criminal demands sanctuary from his church Father Anselm finds his subsequent investigation paralleled by a search by Lucy Aubret whose grandmother was betrayed by the Nazi criminal when she secretly worked to rescue Jewish children A first novel Reprint Sixth Lamentation Moby William Brodrick, 2003-02-27 A man arrives at Larkwood Monastery claiming sanctuary Edward Schwermann is accused of Nazi war crimes the chances are he is stained with blood but politics demand that Larkwood shelter him And Schwermann has intimated that the Church offered him sanctuary once before during the war It is this potentially embarrassing claim which brings Father Anselm onto centre stage Once a lawyer Anselm is sanctioned to make discreet enquiries in Rome but as he edges towards the truth behind Schwermann's crimes his renewed contact with the outside world threatens to overwhelm his fragile spiritual identity For Agnes Embleton seeing Schwermann's face on the television has brought back a flood of memories of Paris of The Round Table a group of idealistic students who tried to save thousands of Jewish children from deportation of the Frenchman who betrayed them and of Schwermann the German officer who sent the children to their deaths But what Agnes doesn't know and Anselm discovers is the personal investment Schwermann had in The Round Table the silent bargains made by its members and the true extent of Schwermann's final treachery 6th

Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology Paul Cefalu, 2017-11-03 The Johannine Renaissance in Early Modern English Literature and Theology argues that the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle of Saint John the Evangelist were so influential during the early modern period in England as to share with Pauline theology pride of place as leading apostolic texts on matters Christological sacramental pneumatological and political The book argues further that in several instances Johannine theology is more central than both Pauline theology and the Synoptic theology of Matthew Mark and Luke particularly with regard to early modern polemicizing on the Trinity distinctions between agape and eros and the ideologies of radical dissent especially the seventeenth century antinomian challenge of free grace to traditional Puritan Pietism In particular early modern religious poetry including works by Robert Southwell George Herbert John Donne Richard Crashaw Thomas Traherne and Anna Trapnel embraces a distinctive form of Johannine devotion that emphasizes the divine rather than human nature of Christ the belief that salvation is achieved more through revelation than objective atonement and expiatory sin a realized eschatology a robust doctrine of assurance and comfort and a stylistic and rhetorical approach to representing these theological features that often emulates John's mode of discipleship misunderstanding and dramatic irony

Early modern Johannine devotion assumes that religious lyrics often express a revelatory poetics that aims to clarify typically through the use of dramatic irony some of the deepest mysteries of the Fourth Gospel and First Epistle The Midrash
