The Workers are Few J. Alexander Rutherford, 2025-01-31 By all indications the Western Church is facing a crisis of pastoral ministry Pastoral ministry is on a trajectory of decline despite the fact that God has opened a massive mission field on our doorstep a mission field that requires workers Moreover we continue to export the same model of ministry to the global Church inviting them to join us in the state of crisis In Matthew 9 37 38 Jesus invites his disciples to consider the vast harvest of souls God has prepared a harvest awaiting workers If we want to see our churches healthy and our neighbours come to know Jesus we must be interested in God's work to prepare workers for the harvest This book is an attempt to repair what is broken to contribute to the repair of pastoral ministry I am convinced that no problem is more urgent to the church globally than this one yet I am also convinced the solution to this problem is quite simple This book argues that our crisis is the result of swapping the biblical vision of pastoral ministry for a poor substitute and our failure to raise disciples in our local church Part 1 identifies significant reasons why we are in a crisis Part 2 lays a biblical foundation for rebuilding a biblical model of pastoral ministry and Part 3 shows how this foundation can be built upon in the life of a local church

Building a People of Power Robert C. Linthicum, 2015-09-15 Jesus never intended the church to become an institution he intended it to be a people of power transforming the world Power is the capacity ability and the willingness to act Most people and systems use power to dominate and control but others have used it relationally to liberate transform and even save Built around a biblical exploration of shalom Building a People of Power explains how local churches can use power to transform their communities and their cities Detailed power strategies are presented enabling churches to build productive relationships to address the primary issues of people they serve and to develop strong leaders faithful organizations and redeemed neighborhoods that live out shalom
