Social Problems Christian Perspectives:

Social Problems Charles De Santo, Margaret M. Poloma, Polma, 1985-01-01 Social Problems in Global Perspective Ronald M. Glassman, William H. Swatos, William H. Swatos, Jr., Barbara J. Denison, 2004-11 The global high tech economy has generated a technological and scientific productive miracle But along with the miracle has come problems Social Problems in Global Perspective focuses on some of these problems including family decline divorce and single parenting the gender war with men and women distrustful and threatened by one another in the workplace the home and the bedroom the moral malaise created by science and religion the media and morality This book presents detailed chapters on the high tech economy religious fundamentalism terrorism and ethnic conflicts It also includes chapters on homosexuality and AIDS the world population explosion and pop culture A Reader in Sociology; Christian Perspectives Charles P. De Santo, Calvin Redekop, William L. Smith-Hinds, 2001-03-07 The Sociology of Social Problems Adam Jamrozik, Luisa Nocella, 1998-07-13 Social problems such as unemployment poverty and drug addiction are a fact of life in industrialised societies This book examines the sociology of social problems from interesting and challenging perspectives It analyses how social problems emerge and are defined as such who takes responsibility for them who is threatened by them and how they are managed solved or ignored The authors examine and critique existing theories of social problems before developing their own theoretical framework Their theory of residualist conversion of social problems explains how certain social problems threaten legitimate power structures so that problems of a social or political nature are transformed into personal problems and the helping professions are left to intervene This book will become a key reference on class inequality and social intervention and an important text for students in sociology and social work courses Christian Perspectives on Sociology Stephen Grunlan, Milton Reimer, 2001-04-02 The Secular Relevance of the Church Gayraud S Wilmore, 2012-05-01 Christianity and Social Scientific Perspectives on Sport Tom Gibbons, Stuart Braye, 2020-06-29 There has been a dramatic increase in academic research activity and practical initiatives on the topic of sports and Christianity and its cultural significance during the past decade The Faculty of Health and Life Sciences at York St John University York UK hosted the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity IGCSC 24 28th August 2016 in collaboration with the Bible Society at which there were 180 delegates from 22 countries in attendance For the area of sports studies the social scientific study of sport there was a thematic strand at the congress titled Christian sociological perspectives on sport from which a special edition of the journal Sport in Society partially emanated This book is based upon this journal special edition The papers selected for inclusion in the special edition were purposely eclectic in order to demonstrate the diversity of current research occurring in the area of Christianity and social scientific perspectives on sport The goal was to bridge divisions between various social science disciplines and theology or religious studies through varied novel and interesting explorations of sport in its various forms We hope this collection inspires further studies into this area

The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue in Sport in Society Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero,2024-12-16 In Social Problems Anna Leon Guerrero provides a thorough exploration of the social problems that permeate our world today and provides readers with the tools to contribute toward real solutions The Eighth Edition offers a blend of sociological analysis policy review and stories of social action making it an essential read for anyone seeking to make a difference in their community Feminism and Christian Tradition Mary-Paula Walsh,1999-05-30 This annotated bibliography a volume in the Greenwood series Bibliographies and Indexes in Religious Studies provides access to the numerous writings from the 1960s through the 1990s on feminism and Christian tradition Major feminist theologians and sociologists are represented As a guide to further research this cross disciplinary approach presents themes and issues in both a historical and a topical framework An extensive overview of feminism in relation to the women s movement women s studies sociology and American religion introduces the literature and provides a historical context for the nearly one thousand entries that follow Cross referenced throughout the literature is presented in six thematic categories that include introductory and background materials feminism and the development of feminist theology topical literatures in feminist theology feminism and womanist theology religious leadership of women and responses and recent developments Separate author subject and title indexes complete the volume Christian Contours Douglas S. Huffman,2012-01-12 What does it mean to think and live Christianly in a world of competing worldviews Christian Contours answers this question by inviting readers to consider the understanding of reality proposed by the Bible Though it is easy to divide life into separate compartments religious and secular theological and practical faith invites us to view all of life in the light of that Biblical understanding Presenting a clear compelling case for unity in essential Christian tenets the authors of Christian Contours guide the reader through developing internalizing and articulating a biblical worldview This robust worldview enables the Christian to be a critically thinking participant in culture and to be a faithful disciple of Christ with both heart and mind

Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph,2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti s intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti s intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers Discipleship of the Mind James W. Sire,1990-04-04 Discussing worldview thinking the foundations of knowledge and the relationship between knowing and doing James W Sire shows Christians how to honor God with their minds To Mend the World Jason Lief,Kurt Rietema,2023-06-27 Increasingly social entrepreneurship the disruption of the status quo for the purpose of creating new solutions to social issues provides an important catalyst for cultural and social change To Mend the World A New Vision for Youth Ministry brings together practical theology Christian ministry and social entrepreneurship for a new approach to work with young people This interdisciplinary conversation begins with a simple premise the old models of ministry are no longer working Young people and emergent adults are shaped more by the dominant culture than the practices of the Christian community Churches frantically create ministry programs to address this reality but these attempts either run parallel to the dominant cultural narratives or are co opted and undermined by them To Mend the World written by a practical theologian and a practitioner draws on the principles and practices of social entrepreneurship to provide ministry leaders with a thoughtful robust theological perspective along with practical insights for youth ministry today and tomorrow The Routledge International Handbook of Sociology and Christianity Dennis Hiebert,2023-10-18 The Routledge International Handbook of Sociology and Christianity examines the intersection of the sociology of religion a long standing focus of sociology as a discipline and Christianity the world s largest religion An internationally representative and thematically comprehensive collection it analyzes both the sociology of Christianity and Christian approaches to sociology with attention to the Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant branches of Christianity An authoritative state of the art review of current research it is organized into five inter connected thematic sections considering the overlapping emergence of both the Christian religion and the social science the conceptualization of and engagement with Christianity by sociological theory the ways in which Christianity shapes and is shaped by various social institutions the manner in which Christianity resists and promotes various forms of social change and the identification diagnosis and correction of social problems by sociology and Christianity This volume is an invaluable collection for scholars and advanced students with special appeal for those working in the fields of sociology and social theory as well as religious studies and theology A Biblical Perspective on How to Handle Worry and Fear Cliff Wong,Andrew Kwong,2010-03-04 Throughout our lives we must face problems of family human relations finance employment health aging safety and security Do you want to correctly handle the worries and fears resulted from our problems or the possibilities of these problems to occur Is it your desire to help your family relatives and friends to solve their worries and fears Our authors Cliff Wong and Andrew Kwong believe that in order to handle our worries and fears properly we need to apply the principles of the Bible to our lives practically Are you happy to have a book which helps you to study the Bible and psychology simultaneously If so this book is for you This is the first book of the Abundant Life Series which is also a biblical counseling or biblical psychology series This book contains so much profound knowledge on the biblical applications for dealing with worries and fears but we make it simple to read and easy to understand Cliff Wong an ordinary person had so many extraordinary experiences in his life God has given Cliff wisdom to compose biblical illustrative examples in this book which also make people laugh Christianity and Educational Provision in International Perspective Witold Tulasiewicz, Colin Brock, 2018-04-17 Published in 1988 Christianity has been one of the most potent forces in the development of education This book critically examines this influence and discusses its political implications A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson, A non threatening entrance into texts from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly The Social Thought of Thomas Merton David W. Givney, 2009 This new edition traces the evolution of Thomas Merton's social thought particularly as it evolved toward a way of nonviolence and peacemaking grounded in contemplation and Christian love It identifies the social context that shaped Merton including civil rights and racism the Vietnam War and a growing nuclear threat And it explores the religious influences and experiences that shaped Merton including Catholic social teaching particularly Pope John XXIII's encyclical letter Pacem in Terris Peace on Earth the words and actions of Mahatma Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr the practice of contemplation and Zen and Merton's own life as a Trappist monk International Christian Literature Documentation Project Douglas W. Geyer, 1993 The Sociological Perspective Michael Leming, Raymond De Vries, Brendan Furnish, 2009-10-10 Sociology and Christianity Attempting to bring sociology and Christianity together is like trying to mix oil and water Christians seem to have as little regard for sociology as sociologists generally have for Christianity However in the middle of this conflict there is a group bold enough to call themselves Christian sociologists they are not willing to be stereotyped but are seriously committed to both realms This collection of essays covers topics that are typically addressed in introductory sociology courses Written from a Christian point of view these essays are also geared for a wide range of readers from undergraduates to professional sociologists who bring faith commitments to the sociological task The editors goal is to provide an understanding of societal forces that is informed by a Christian conscience Toward that end certain recurring themes are found in this book the need for informed Christian social action the conflict between the individual and the community the conflict between freedom and determinism and the significance of social sin
