Imperfect Institutions Thráinn Eggertsson, 2009-10-27 The emergence of New Institutional Economics toward the end of the twentieth century profoundly changed our ideas about the organization of economic systems and their social and political foundations Imperfect Institutions explores recent developments in this field and pushes the discussion forward by allowing for incomplete knowledge of social systems and unexpected system dynamics and above all by focusing explicitly on institutional policy Empirical studies extending from Africa to Iceland are cited in support of the theoretical argument In Imperfect Institutions Thr inn Eggertsson extends his attempt to integrate and develop the new field that began with his acclaimed Economic Behavior and Institutions 1990 which has been translated into six languages This latest work analyzes why institutions that create relative economic backwardness emerge and persist and considers the possibilities and limits of institutional reform Thr inn Eggertsson is Professor of Economics at the University of Iceland and Global Distinguished Professor of Politics at New York University Previously published works include Economic Behavior and Institutions 1990 and Empirical Studies in Institutional Change with Lee Alston and Douglass North 1996

The Cult of Statistical Significance Deirdre Nansen McCloskey, Steve Ziliak, 2010-02-11 McCloskey and Ziliak have been pushing this very elementary very correct very important argument through several articles over several years and for reasons I cannot fathom it is still resisted If it takes a book to get it across I hope this book will do it It ought to Thomas Schelling Distinguished University Professor School of Public Policy University of Maryland and 2005 Nobel Prize Laureate in Economics With humor insight piercing logic and a nod to history Ziliak and McCloskey show how
