Research in Chinese, Western and Global Contexts Daniel T.L. Shek,Ying Keung Chan,Paul S.N. Lee,2005-09-26 The majority of studies on the quality of life have been conducted in Western contexts and are based on Western participants Comparatively speaking there are only a few studies that have been conducted in different Chinese contexts Also there are fewer QOL studies based on children and adolescents or studies that examine the relationship between QOL and economic disadvantage. In addition, more research is needed to address the methodological issues related to the assessment of quality of life. This volume is a constructive response to the challenges described above. It is the first book to cover research in Chinese, Western, and global contexts in a single volume. It is a ground-breaking volume in which Chinese studies on the quality of life are collected. The book includes papers addressing family QOL, quality of life in adolescents experiencing economic disadvantage, and methodological issues in the assessment of QOL. It is written by researchers working in a variety of disciplines.

The Social Progress of Nations Revisited, 1970-2020 Richard J. Estes, 2019-07-30. This book presents a comprehensive view of the state of social progress worldwide over an entire 50-year period beginning 1970. It discusses original time series research for the period 1970-2018, as well as contemporary trends in quality of life and well-being research for the period since 2018, and provides innovative research findings into the nature, history, and status of 160 of the world's economically advanced and developing nations. Among the topics included are discussion of the worldwide development trends occurring with especially vulnerable population groups such as children and youth, the elderly, women, persons with disabilities, sexual minorities, and economic migrants. Further, this book reports social indicator trends at four units of analysis: individuals, nations, world regions, and for the world as a whole.

The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil, Michael Reisch, 2005. Encompassing community development, organizing, planning, and social change, as well as globalisation, this book is grounded in participatory and empowerment practice. The 36 chapters assess practice, theory, and research methods.

Doing Families in Hong Kong Kwok B. Chan, 2009. The annual is a venue of publication for sociological studies of Chinese societies and the Chinese all over the world. The main focus is on social transformations in Hong Kong, Taiwan, the mainland, Singapore, and Chinese overseas.

The State of Social Progress of Islamic Societies Habib Tiliouine, Richard J. Estes, 2016-04-08. This handbook addresses the historical background of the Islamic world and reviews its basic past intellectual achievements. It studies social progress of these regions and sub-regions in comparison with other parts of the world. It uses large data sets and well-established statistically weighted indexes in order to assess the nature and pace of the multiple facets of social change in member states of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC). The handbook extensively discusses the main challenges confronting the Islamic nations in the social, economic, political, and ideological fields. Though it is recognizable that social change in the Islamic World is generally positive, it remains highly variable in pace, and there is room to speed it up to the benefit of millions of deprived Muslim people. Hence, the book studies the different propositions and programs of action, such as the United Nations Millennium Development Campaign and the OIC's Ten Year Programme of Action, to present an integrated and comprehensive agenda of action to help improve the situation in the Islamic World.
