Thinking with Things Esther Pasztory, 2005-08-01 At its heart Pasztory's thesis is simple and yet profound She asserts that humans create things some of which modern Western society chooses to call art in order to work out our ideas that is we literally think with things Pasztory draws on examples from many societies to argue that the art making impulse is primarily cognitive and only secondarily aesthetic She demonstrates that art always reflects the specific social context in which it is created and that as societies become more complex their art becomes more rarefied Jacket

Minh-Ha, Cornel West, 1992-02-11 Out There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau's piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford's on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press A

Genealogical History of the Milesian Families of Ireland B. W. De Courcy, 2002 The Classic Work by DeCourcy giving the origins and places of settlement of families in Ireland for both the old celtic families Milesian and the new settler families in Ireland The first genealogy work of its kind and scope in Ireland All new index and commentary from the president of the Irish Genealogical Foundation Analytical Legal Naturalism Samuel Zinaich Jr., 2020-07-15 In legal jurisprudence the phenomenon of hard cases presents itself as a dilemma between the legal positivists and the natural law realists Of the former without the metaphysical underpinnings of an objective legal or moral standard the legal positivists cannot supply convincing arguments to supplant the sovereign as the origin and authority of law The natural law realists face the problem of justifying the natural law Against both views S Zinaich Jr defends a middle position Analytical Legal Naturalism ALN It represents an analytic norm both necessarily true and known a posteriori Against the legal positivists it supplies an objective legal standard by removing at least for hard cases the necessity of the will of a sovereign authority Against the natural law realists ALN provides a nonmoral standard which because of its analyticity and necessity avoids the need for metaethical speculation Finally ALN provides a standard that not only supplies the universalizable punch to avoid political subjectivism but does so in a conventional manner Thus ALN does not require a moral or modal reality as truth making characteristics Rather it makes what is legally valuable or disvaluable dependent upon empirically verifiable facts that are legally relevant
