Beyond Marxism: The Faith and Works of Hendrik de Man Peter Dodge, 2012-12-06 To recall all those who have contributed to the genesis of the present work involves pleasant reminiscence The grey skies of Belgium come to mind with the acknowledgment that without the aid of two United States Government Fulbright Grants the study would have been stillborn Both Dorothy Deflandre Executive Officer of the U S Educational Foundation in Belgium and Henri Janne then Director of the Institut de Sociologie Solvay used their official powers to facilitate the process of research Another scene equally impressed upon the memory the placid setting of Amsterdam s Keizersgracht arises with therecollectionofthe courtesy of the Internationaal Instituut voor Soci ale Geschiedenis whose director the late A J C R ter kindly granted me access to the de Man archives I take pleasure also in acknowledging financial support from the Research Foundation of the State University of New York whereby I could investigate further materials later made available at the Archives Generales du Royaume in Brussels

Boxing, Narrative and Culture Sarah Crews, P. Solomon Lennox, 2023-10-16

Boxing Narrative and Culture Critical Perspectives is the first interdisciplinary response to the dominant boxing narratives that are produced performed and circulated in commercial boxing culture This collection includes global perspectives on boxing It highlights the diverse range of bodies and communities that engage with boxing practices but are oftentimes overlooked and overwritten by popular narrative tropes and misconceptions of the sport These interdisciplinary and global perspectives engage with boxing s shared narrative resources offering new readings and insights on how and what boxing performs and for whom The contributors to this collection are academics artists amateur boxers and or coaches who provide a culture critique of boxing The work shows how boxing practices are performed and channelled by individuals and communities who access and utilise boxing culture as a means of physical enquiry political statement and community building These contributions challenge the notion that boxing is a sport reserved for masculine bodies adorned as heroes warriors or victims of the sport Exploring key themes in socio cultural studies including gender race community media and performance this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in physical culture sport studies cultural studies gender studies cultural geography critical race theory labour studies performance studies or media studies

A Man's World? Political Masculinities in Literature and Culture Kathleen Starck, 2014-07-24 Political institutions and practices such as the state parliament citizenship and nationality the vote the military and the making and implementation of laws have traditionally been treated as if they were un gendered and guided exclusively by objective reasoning and rationality

Rationality and reason though have been habitually ascribed to masculinity a fact which has often been ignored in favour of the apparent gender inclusiveness of the realm of politics In contrast to this view this book explores the interdependence of the construction of masculinities on the one hand and the emerging maintenance and modification of concepts such as the state citizenship nationality and nationalism democracy and militarism on the other Illustrating the great amount of research activity in the field of political masculinities the book offers many perspectives in its attempt to shed light on different modes of representing and constructing political masculinities across time and space Findings from the fields of political science history media studies literature and film studies as well as cultural studies encourage an interdisciplinary debate of political masculinities in Europe and the United States from the nineteenth to the twenty first century

Shake, Rattle and Roll: Yugoslav Rock Music and the Poetics of Social Critique Dalibor Mišina,2016-04-01 From the late 1970s to the late 1980s rock music in Yugoslavia had an important social and political purpose of providing a popular cultural outlet for the unique forms of socio cultural critique that engaged with the realities and problems of life in Yugoslav society The three music movements that emerged in this period New Wave New Primitives and New Partisans employed the understanding of rock music as the music of commitment i e as socio cultural praxis premised on committed social engagement to articulate the critiques of the country s new socialist culture with the purpose of helping to eliminate the disconnect between the ideal and the reality of socialist Yugoslavia This book offers an analysis of the three music movements and their particular brand of poetics of the present in order to explore the movements specific forms of socio cultural engagement with Yugoslavia s new socialist culture and demonstrate that their cultural praxis was oriented towards the goal of realizing the genuine Yugoslav socialist humanist community in the true measure of man Thus the book s principal argument is that the driving force behind the music of commitment was although critical a fundamentally constructive disposition towards the progressive ideal of socialist Yugoslavia

Political Translations on Eastern Europe United States. Joint Publications Research Service, The Philosophical Foundations of Soviet Aesthetics Edward M. Swiderski,2012-12-06 0 1 GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROBLEMATIC This study is devoted to an examination of a concept of crucial significance for Soviet aesthetics the concept of the aesthetic esteticeskoe Soviet aestheticians have for some time already been trying to design a concept of the aesthetic that would satisfy on the one hand the requirements of aesthetic phenomena and on the other hand the principles of the Marxist Leninist world view The first part of this work shows how the concept of the aesthetic has been and continues to be problematic for Soviet aestheticians This task is carried out by dwelling first of all on the controversies among Soviet aestheticians concerning meta aesthetic issues viz the nature and scope of aesthetics as well as its place among other philosophical and non philosophical disciplines A particularly clear view of the problems that have traditionally pre occupied Soviet aestheticians is provided by an examination of what they standardly call the method of aesthetics where method is understood in the sense of an explanatory framework rather than in the strict logico scientific sense of the term This discussion will provide the occasion to pass in review the main periods of Soviet aesthetics and the characteristic aspects of each The chapter on the sources of contemporary Marxist Leninist aesthetics brings into relief the lack of a homogeneous tradition in the question of the nature of the aesthetic and other related problems

Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1969

The Visual Culture of East German Picturebooks 1945-1990 Jörg Meibauer, 2025-06-02 This is the first study to explore picturebooks of the Soviet Occupation Zone and the German Democratic Republic analyzing them in the context of contemporary history social and cultural developments and through a precise analysis of selected images and their context By focusing on areas such as architecture and housing consumer culture traffic and transportation including the iconic role of the Trabant and the design of childhood as seen in pioneer uniforms and institutions the study identifies the unique blend of information about reality and socialist ideology typical of children's visual culture during this period This specific combination was aimed at shaping children to become socialist personalities The study thus demonstrates that pictorial representation and its textual integration are crucial for understanding childhood in the immediate post war period and the German Democratic Republic

Leisure, Citizenship and Working-class Men in Britain, 1850-1945 Brad Beaven, 2005 From the bawdy audience of a Victorian Penny Gaff to the excitable crowd of an early twentieth century football match working class male leisure proved to be a contentious issue for contemporary observers For middle class social reformers from across the political spectrum the spectacle of popular leisure offered a view of working class habits and a means by which lifestyles and behaviour could be assessed For the mid Victorians gingerly stepping into a new mass democratic age the desire to create a bond between the recently enfranchised male worker and the nation was more important than ever This trend continued as those in governance perceived that good leisure and citizenship could fend off challenges to social stability such as imperial decline the mass degenerate city hooliganism civic and voter apathy and fascism Thus between 1850 and 1945 the issue of male leisure became enmeshed with changing contemporary debates on the encroaching mass society and its implications for good citizenry Working class culture has often been depicted as an atomised and fragmented entity lacking any significant cultural contestation Drawing on a wealth of primary and secondary source material this book powerfully challenges these recent assumptions and places social class centre stage once more Arguing that there was a remarkable continuity in male working class culture between 1850 and 1945 Beaven contends that despite changing socio economic contexts male working class culture continued to draw from a tradition of active participation and cultural contestation that was both class and gender exclusive This lively and readable book draws from fascinating accounts from those who participated in and observed contemporary popular leisure making it of importance to students and teachers of social history popular culture urban history historical geography historical sociology and cultural studies
