Political Support in Canada Richard A. Preston, E. Donald Briggs, 1983 All governments require popular support and in democracies this support must be maintained by noncoercive means This book analyzes the question of political support in Canada a country in which the maintenance of the integrity of the political community has been and continues to be in the words of the editors the single most salient aspect of the country's political life The nature of popular support is first considered in broad theoretical terms then from the standpoint of those agents most responsible for maintaining support in Canadian democracy then as influenced by particular issues and policies and finally as it affects and is affected by the separatist movement in Quebec

Tracing Ted Tetsuo Aoki's Intellectual Formation Patricia Baergen, 2020-07-08 Through careful examination of Ted Aoki's life and work within its historical societal and intellectual context this text advances a new appreciation of the national distinctiveness of Canadian curriculum studies The book draws unique comparison between Aoki's writings and Heidegger's concept of being in the world In exploring Aoki's narratives on momentous life events the author attends to the interwoven dynamic and poetic essence of the scholar's intellectual formation and identifies a critically reflective style of theorizing By contextualizing Aoki's narrations on his momentous life events the text engages with Aoki's critical reflective and unique style of theorizing and foregrounds the prominent influence of Heidegger's phenomenology and writings on Aoki's thinking A major contribution to understanding Aoki's curriculum scholarship this book is an important resource for researchers and post graduate students working across curriculum studies discourse
