Marriage in Human Society Manis Kumar Raha,2023-01-01 Marriage as an institution was introduced among the human beings possible thousands of years ago Human being possible started with promiscuity and then moved to the structured forms of marriages It took no doubt many many years From one form of marriage is human being diversified marriage form into several During last couple of century or more several changes have taken place in marriage pattern forms methods ceremonies etc Still during recent decades only some anthropologists and other social scientists have showed much interest to study marriage These Three Volumes deals with marriage in different parts of the world and its different forms and types in great details But much emphasis has been given on different multiple marriages particularly polyandry its sub types and regions of origin and development of polyandry as practiced in different countries including India Emphasis has also been given on the question of determination and allocation of paternity and decline of polyandry and some other multiple marriages In this study special stress has been given on some of the marriage that is sexuality reproductively and paternity Also provide very good idea about different aspects of marriage and its types and forms The publisher and author of this book will be extremely happy if the reader considers this book as an important contribution to anthropology and other social sciences These volumes are useful for all those who are interested in Sociology Tribal Studies Anthropology and other Social Sciences Community-based Biodiversity Conservation in the Himalayas Yogesh Gokhale,Ajeet K. Negi,2011-01-01

Conservation of biodiversity by local communities has been part of the social system in the Himalayas A variety of ecosystems are conserved traditionally by local communities These communities are fully aware of the relationship between protecting the nature and getting ecosystem goods and services The van panchayat system in Uttarakhand and sacred natural sites all over the Himalayas suggest a mix of the institutions in the region Globally community conserved areas CCAs are gaining importance Biodiversity Heritage Sites Community Reserves and Conservation Reserves are the new institutional legal provisions that recognize the efforts of local communities in biodiversity conservation in India The present volume highlights the importance of the existing systems in terms of their role in biodiversity conservation with community participation and suggests ways to enhance community based biodiversity conservation in light of the emerging policy provisions It would serve as an important reference for a wide range of stakeholders from policy makers to environmentalists biodiversity experts development practitioners academicians and researchers Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P. Wouters,Michael T. Heneise,2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general
