Publications Pty, Limited, 2001 Critical Voices in Teacher Education Barry Down, John Smyth, 2012-04-28 We live in dangerous times when educational policies and practices are debated largely in terms of how they fit with the needs of the free market This volume is a collection of writing by teacher educators that draws on their unique biographies experiences and perspectives to denounce these misguided norms It explores what it means practically and intellectually to teach for social justice in conservative times In a globalised world where the power of capital holds sway the purposes of social institutions such as universities and schools is being refashioned in ways that are markedly instrumental and technicist in nature The consequence is that teachers work is increasingly constrained by regimes of control such as standardised testing accountability transparency and national curricula In the meantime large numbers of students and teachers are disengaging physically emotionally and intellectually from learning The contributors to this edited volume present both a powerful critique of these developments and a counter hegemonic vision of teacher education founded on the principles and values of social justice democracy and critical inquiry Teacher education they argue involves a commitment to critical intellectual work that subjects some deeply entrenched assumptions beliefs habits routines and practices to closer scrutiny The contributing authors expose how ideology and power operate in seemingly blameless rational ways to perpetuate social hierarchies based on class gender sexuality race and culture Society and Environment for Western Australia Denis Young, Maggy Saldais, 2004 YEAR 8 Society and Environment for Western Australia Multiple Intelligence Worksheets 1 provides 50 photocopiable master worksheets developed to enhance the teaching of Studies of Society and Environment for Middle Years students The worksheets put the fun back into learning for students of all abilities and interests by allowing them to participate in real life learning that engages and stimulates the whole brain Each worksheet focuses on a particular intelligence although some may cover more than one The intelligences covered are verbal linguistic logical mathematical

Critical Systemic Praxis for Social and Environmental Justice Janet McIntyre-Mills, 2012-12-06 The book develops a practical approach to public policy issues that have continued to be intractable because of a lack of emphasis on transcultural understanding Sustained examples help to increase the readability and the accessibility of theory and methodology The key themes address the issue that Management needs to be more systemic Critical Systemic Praxis is the process whereby we find ways to work across discipline areas and sectoral areas in order to address complex social political economic and environmental problems The way we define and address problems depends on an ability to work with rather than within knowledge areas By introducing the notion of governance we can extend traditional management from an organisational context to an inter organisational context and locate governance as the goal for sustainable social and environmental justice The core aspects of praxis are Respectful listening and dialogue to set up appropriate contexts for participatory design Participatory designs based on participatory action research to map tacit and explicit knowledge of participants professional and ordinary citizens Strategic decision making across discipline areas cultural contexts and knowledge areas Action learning to transfer the policy and practice learnings Mainstreaming the approach to governance in the social political economic and environmental sectors The book develops a systemic approach to public policy issues Examples are used throughout to exemplify theory The integrated approach to policy and practice is ideally suited to addressing the socio economic and environmental issues

Social Learning in Environmental Management Rob Dyball, Meg Keen, 2012-04-27 Social Learning in Environmental Management explores and expands the approaches to collective learning most needed to help individuals communities experts and governments work together to achieve greater social and ecological sustainability It provides practical frameworks and case studies to assist environmental managers in building partnerships that can support learning and action on issues arising from human impacts on the life support systems of our planet In this book social learning frameworks and case studies address the three areas of collaboration community government and professional in some detail The resulting guidelines and their practical applications provide key source material for undergraduate and postgraduate professional education in the fields of social and environmental sciences political science planning geography and urban studies and also for professionals in environmental management

APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Environmental Social Work Mel Gray, John Coates, Tiani Hetherington, 2013 Divided into three parts this field defining work explores what environmental social work is and how it can be put into practice It focuses on theory discussing ecological and social justice as well as sustainability spirituality and human rights

Biodiversity and Environmental Change Emma Burns, Andrew Lowe, Nicole Thurgate, David Lindenmayer, 2014-02-06 This data rich book demonstrates the value of existing national long term ecological research in Australia for monitoring environmental change and biodiversity Long term ecological data are critical for informing trends in biodiversity and environmental change The Terrestrial Ecosystem Research Network TERN is a major initiative of the Australian Government and one of its key areas of investment is to provide funding for a network of long term ecological research plots around Australia LTERN LTERN researchers and other authors in this book have maintained monitoring sites often for one or more decades in an array of different ecosystems across the Australian continent ranging from tropical rainforests wet eucalypt forests and alpine regions through to rangelands and deserts This book highlights some of the temporal changes in the environment that have occurred in the various systems in which dedicated field based ecologists have worked Many important trends and changes are documented and they often provide new insights that were previously poorly understood or unknown These data are precisely the kinds of data so desperately needed to better quantify the temporal trajectories in the environment in Australia By presenting trend patterns and often also the associated data the authors aim to catalyse governments and other organisations to better recognise the importance of long term data collection and monitoring as a fundamental part of ecologically effective and cost effective management of the environment and biodiversity

Night Parrot Penny Olsen, 2018-09-01 For well over a century the Night Parrot lured its seekers into Australia's vast arid outback From the beginning it was a mysterious bird Fewer than 30 specimens were collected before it all but disappeared offering only fleeting glimpses and the occasional mummified body as proof of its continued existence Protected by spinifex and darkness the parrot attained almost mythical status a challenge to birdwatchers and an inspiration to poets novelists and artists Night Parrot documents the competitiveness and secrecy the triumphs and adventures of the history of the bird and its followers culminating in the recent discovery of live birds at a few widely scattered locations It describes what we are now unravelling about the mysteries of its biology and ecology and what is still left to learn Complemented by guest essays illustrations and photographs from a wide variety of sources this book sheds light on Australia's most elusive bird
