Sociology Canada Readings:

Sociology Canada Christopher Beattie, Stewart Crysdale, 1977 Aboriginal Voices and the Politics of Representation in Canadian Introductory Sociology Textbooks John Steckley, 2003 The philosophical underpinnings of this textbook make it a most interesting read for scholars of Aboriginal Studies the social sciences humanities and cultural studies and humanistic curriculum development John Steckley's familiarity with and respect for the epistemology of the Huron Mohawk and Ojibwa peoples enlightens and enables his research In this book he provides a critical framework for assessing Aboriginal content in introductory sociology textbooks He defines what is missing from the seventy seven texts included in his study of the manifestation of cultural hegemony in Canadian sociology textbooks This critique is suitable for students and professors of sociology as Dr Steckley addresses the impact of the ellipses from the textbooks they have traditionally used Sociology Canada Christopher Beattie, Stewart Crysdale, 1974 American Sociological Hegemony Danesh A. Chekki, 1987 Provides a synthetic comparative analysis of the dominant influence of American Sociology on the sociologies of India and Canada It examines the positivism humanism controversy and the roles of sociologists and argues for the development of a global sociology Selected by Choice as an Outstanding Academic Book of 1988 1989 Sociological Readings and Re-readings (1996) Paul Atkinson, 2018-05-08 Published in 1996 this book comprises a number of essays by Paul Atkinson in which he reflects on processes of reading and writing in the social sciences Topics covered include ethnographers confessions an analysis of the style of Erving Goffman a reflection of his own experiences of re reading work and a discussion of the challenges of reading an alien discipline This book was originally published as part of the Cardiff Papers in Qualitative Research series edited by Paul Atkinson Sara Delamont and Amanda Coffey The series publishes original sociological research that reflects the tradition of qualitative and ethnographic inquiry developed at Cardiff The series includes monographs reporting on empirical research edited collections focussing on particular themes and texts discussing methodological developments and issues Readings in Sociology Lorne Tepperman, James E. Curtis, 1988 Ideological Perspectives on Canada M. Patricia Marchak, 2011 In Ideological Perspectives on Canada Patricia Marchak builds on her earlier descriptions of Canadian reality its liberalism and socialism to argue that today's corporatism differs from its forerunners in both its values and its definition of society Marchak argues that liberalism and socialism have many commonalities such as the goals of equality and freedom for citizens Corporatism however is opposed to equality and promotes an authoritarian hierarchy resembling the older conservative ideology To support her argument Marchak provides a general overview of the study of ideologies analyzes liberalism and socialism in the context of Canada and uses Marxist theory to explain past and present class structure and the emergence of a corporatist social structure A valuable contribution to the debate about the society we live in Ideological Perspectives on Canada attempts to look at ideologies from an objective standpoint while admitting that analysts can never fully remove themselves from the web of their own society which in the Canadian case is steeped in liberalism socialism and corporatism Towards a Critical Sociology of Reading Pedagogy Carolyn D. Baker, Allan Luke, 1991-01-01 Through critical sociological appraisals of literary theory research and pedagogy this volume presents challenges to dominant psychological approaches in reading research and to mainstream discourses about reading and writing pedagogy Bringing together the recent work of literacy researchers in Australia Europe and North America the volume offers novel critiques and theorizations from within political economy neomarxist and critical theory ethnomethodology interactive sociolinguistics poststructuralism and postmodernism The volume is arranged in four sections The Politics of Pedagogy Reading in Classrooms Reconstructing Theory Reading the Social This collection is provocative and innovative offering clear alternatives for conceptualizing literacy for conducting literacy research and for reconstructing the discourses and practices of reading and writing in schools The volume is addressed to a broad audience of researchers educators and students Canadian Society: Sociological Perspectives NA NA, 2015-12-29 The Measure of Canadian Society John Porter, 1987-01-01 Vertical Mosaic In this book are gathered ten of his outstanding essays written over a period of twenty five years Porter s well known ex student Wallace Clement provides the introduction for this volume and Richard Helmes Hayes has compiled an updated bibliography of writings by and about John Porter Seeing Ourselves : Classic, Contemporary, and Cross-cultural Readings in Sociology Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis, John J. Macionis, Bruce Ravelli, 2006-03 The Changing Face of Canada Roderic P. Beaujot, Donald W. Kerr, 2007 Canadian society is rapidly changing This concise up to date volume masterfully captures this change Edited by two of Canada s leading demographers Roderic Beaujot and Don Kerr this book is an exciting entry in Canadian population studies drawing from a variety of disciplines including sociology geography economics history and epidemiology The Changing Face of Canada is an essential text for demography courses across the country Each reading has been meticulously edited and concisely ordered into five essential sections fertility mortality international migration domestic migration and population distribution population aging population composition Vital issues include the role of immigration in Canada s future the deteriorating economic welfare of immigrants globalization undocumented migration and unwanted refugees Aboriginal population change implications of unprecedented low fertility and the astonishing demographic transformation of Canadian cities Reading Canadian Women's and Gender History Nancy Janovicek, Carmen Nielson, 2019-01-01 Inspired by the question of what s next in the field of Canadian women s and gender history this broadly historiographical volume represents a conversation among established and emerging scholars who share a commitment to understanding the past from intersectional feminist perspectives It includes original essays on Quebecois Indigenous Black and immigrant women s histories and tackles such diverse topics as colonialism religion labour warfare sexuality and reproductive labour and justice Intended as a regenerative retrospective of a critically important field this collection both engages analytically with the current state of women s and gender historiography in Canada and draws on its rich past to generate new knowledge and areas for inquiry The Civil Sphere in Canada Jeffrey C. Alexander, Mervyn Horgan, 2025-05-15 When activists advocates victims of injustice and ordinary citizens seek to advance or block social justice and cohesion they draw on morally charged ideals But the wellsprings of solidarity in a society as diverse as Canada are complex and mutable The Civil Sphere in Canada analyzes the shifting meanings we attach to key social actors activities and institutions to reveal the dynamics of inclusion and exclusion that animate Canadian society Applying Jeffrey Alexander s groundbreaking civil sphere theory to Indigenous settler relations media scandals multiculturalism urban planning and personal relations contributors demonstrate that transformations in shared meaning must precede legislative and institutional change Profoundly harmful behaviours such as cultural appropriation sexual misconduct and even genocide may pass as routine for years before the public decides they are unacceptable breaches of civil order This superb collection ushers Canadian voices into a burgeoning international debate about the role of the civil sphere in effecting social justice

Multiculturalism and Immigration in Canada Elspeth Cameron, 2004 Multiculturalism in Canada offers a solid introduction to the history and development of the ideology of multiculturalism in Canada This ideology which has become the primary designator of Canadian society began in the early 1970s when vocal elements in the population who were neither English nor French strongly responded to the investigations of the Committee on Bilingualism and Biculturalism Given Canada s early racist tendencies the establishment of multiculturalism was a remarkable shift in public thinking Many issues associated with immigration have arisen in the public debates around multiculturalism Some people are convinced that it is a pernicious ideology that enforces the ghettoisation of those different from the mainstream Others see dangers in the way some aspects of multiculturalism are merely tokens of an all inclusive society Still others contend that the voices of ethnicities aside from those of the two charter groups English and French are scarcely heard and that worse those marginalised voices are appropriated by mainstream writers On the whole however Canadians especially younger Canadians welcome a liberal outlook that is inclusive of a wide variety of ethnicities For them and for many immigrants Canada is a society that is multiple and layered one rich in meaning They tend to see Canada as a microcosm of the larger world one that presents a useful model of tolerance for the world at large Increasingly marginalised new Canadians are excelling in the arts communities telling all Canadians what various aspects of the culture shock of transplantation feels like This book includes a representative sample of their works

More Than It Seems Margrit Eichler, Patrizia Albanese, Susan Ferguson, Nicky Hyndman, Lichun Willa Liu, Ann Matthews, 2010-09-01 Household work is an essential part of many people s lives yet all too often it is rendered invisible More Than It Seems aims not only to make this vitally important work visible but also to reconsider it as a source of learning Drawing on a large study conducted in Canada the authors consider diverse forms of household work including carework They highlight the experiences of people at the margins including immigrants Aboriginal women people with disabilities nannies and people who provide and receive care and analyze those experiences through the prism of lifelong learning theory The result is a pioneering work that challenges

our assumptions about both household work and lifelong learning Changing Women, Changing History Diana Pederson, 1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Outlines of Introductory Sociology Clarence Marsh Case, 1924 Reading Research, Fifth Canadian Edition - E-Book Barbara Davies, Jo Logan, 2011-11-21 Expanded Chapters 2 and 3 now include more on mixed method research New information about systematic reviews including an example of how to read a forest plot Descriptive and interpretive phenomenology is explained NEW Includes brief discussion about using social media to find research NEW Interactive forms on accompanying website Improving Social Intervention John Gandy, Alex Robertson, Susan Sinclair, 2017-04-28 This book first published in 1983 considers the whole problem of how social research can lead to improvement in practice in social policy and social work In the first section individual chapters discuss the political context within which research is commissioned and used through consideration of the politics of comparative research and of the application of research findings to policy making in the personal social services The problems of putting policy into practice and using research in a systematic and predictable way for improving situation is also examined This title will be of interest to students of the Sociology Education and Social Policy
