Spring-Air is Also Made in The One-Piece Style

SPRING-AIR is the most restful mattress. It relaxes you so perfectly that you actually drift off to sleep as though you were floating on air!

First introduced to the public in the National Geographic Magazine six years ago, it is now the prized possession in modern homes. And it has made most astonishing progress in the institutional field of hotels and hospitals.

As medical science discovered the importance of deep-sleep—hospitals sought a more restful mattress to aid them in their work. Spring-Air is the answer.

In competition for modern-day patronage, hotels were quick to search for a more restful mattress. Today, from the largest hotel in the world to the finest small hotel in the world, Spring-Air is the answer.

Spring-Air won its place by giving more restful sleep. Never a low-priced mattress, Spring-Air provides comfort that is undiminished through years of use. It has always proved that it gives more comfort and costs less over a period of years. That's why it's today's biggest bargain in mattresses.

Good idea! When you're traveling... examine the trade-mark on the mattress you sleep on. You'll discover Spring-Air that way. Better yet—see it at your own department or furniture store.
