The National Piggybank Does Our Retirement System Need Fixing National:

The National Piggybank Keith Melville, 1996 The National Piggybank, 1996 Framing the Social Security Debate R. Douglas Arnold, Michael J. Graetz, Alicia H. Munnell, 2010-12-01 In his 1998 State of the Union address President Clinton challenged Americans to a public debate about how to fix the long term financial problems of Social Security This annual volume of the National Academy of Social Insurance provides a framework for that debate Competing reform proposals reflect contrasting views about the nature of the Social Security problem and how to solve it This book examines issues about privatization national savings and economic growth the political risks and realities in reforms lessons from private pensions developments in the United States and the efforts of other advanced industrial countries to adapt their old age pensions to an aging population It also poses philosophical arguments about collective versus individual responsibility and the implications of market risks and political risks for stable and secure retirement income policy The contributors are Theo Angelis Michael J Boskin Peter A Diamond John Geanakoplos Hugh Heclo Karen C Holden Howell Jackson Olivia Mitchell Dallas L Salisbury Lawrence H Thompson Kent Weaver and Stephen P Zeldes Copublished with the National Academy of Social Insurance Public Policy: Politics, Analysis, and Alternatives, 2nd Edition Michael E Kraft, Furlong, 2007 Public Policy starts with the basics and describes government institutions identifies primary policy actors and reviews major theoretical models The authors then discuss the nature of policy analysis and its practice and show students how to employ evaluative criteria in six substantive policy areas Politics for People Forrest David Mathews, 1999 This volume points out that many Americans making no secret of their anger at being shut out of the political system are looking for ways to take that system back Because of their low opinion of politics as usual the author contends that some people are trying to create a politics relevant to their everyday lives He describes how people become politically engaged how they build civic communities and how they generate political energy or public will He argues that political discussion is the doorway into politics and he makes a case for infusing partisan debate with more public dialog He then explains what a democratic citizenry must do if representative government is to perform effectively and he shows how officials might work with and not just for the public The author integrates an examination of the dilemma of inaccessible politics with practical examples of ways in which ordinary citizens can manage influence and even capture the future of their own communities Social Security Richard C. Leone, Greg Anrig, 1999 The debate over the future of Social Security the federal government's largest and most successful domestic program is at center stage in Washington Unfortunately many Americans who recognize the importance of the issue have become confused both by the complexity of the topic and an abundance of contradictory and misleading political rhetoric This book attempts to clarify critical facts about Social Security and its future while highlighting widely repeated but inaccurate claims about the system Topics explored include myths and misunderstandings about public opinion toward Social Security the potential impact of the retirement of the baby boom generation on the American economy

whether Americans are saving enough for retirement the relationship between the program and the federal budget and misperceptions about the extent to which the stock market can and cannot help the system's long term prospects The volume is edited by Richard C Leone president of The Century Foundation and Gregory Anrig Jr vice president Contributing authors include Brookings Institution economists Henry J Aaron Robert D Reischauer and William Gale former Social Security Commissioner Robert M Ball and Brandeis University economist James H Schulz The Social Studies Professional, 2002 Bowker's Complete Video Directory 2001, 2001 Deliberation & the Work of Higher Education John R. Dedrick, Laura Grattan, Harris Dienstfrey, 2008 This book edited by Kettering Foundation Vice President and Program Director John Dedrick along with Laura Grattan and Harris Dienstfrey demonstrates how deliberation can help higher education renew its mission of preparing citizens to sustain democracy and stimulate civic involvement on college campuses around the country It also describes how deliberative dialogue in both the classroom and on campus can promote learning and problem solving amidst a culture of argument debate and polarization that is prevalent on campus and in society First and foremost however it is a book about the possibilities of deliberation and the ways in which teachers and administrators can adapt it to their instructional and organizational goals About the Kettering Foundation The Kettering Foundation is a nonpartisan nonprofit operating foundation rooted in the American tradition of cooperative research Kettering's primary research question is What does it take to make democracy work as it should Kettering's research is distinctive because it is conducted from the perspective of citizens and focuses on what people can do collectively to address problems affecting their lives their communities and their nation For more information about Kettering research and publications see the Kettering Foundation's website at www.kettering.org Saving Smartly for Retirement United States.
