The Negev Project:

The Middle East Peter Beaumont, Gerald Blake, J. Malcolm Wagstaff, 2016-04-14 This book first published in 1976 and in this second edition in 1988 combines an examination of the political cultural and economic geography of the Middle East with a detailed study of the region's landscape features natural resources environmental conditions and ecological evolution The Middle East with its extremes of climate and terrain has long fascinated those interested in the fine balance between man and his environment and now its economic and political importance in world affairs has brought the region to the attention of everybody Drylands Peter Beaumont, 2014-04-08 Drylands which cover over half the world's area have witnessed rapid development exploitation and change with the discovery of mineral reserves urbanization and population growth Environmental management is critical to the conservation and sustainable use of resources This comprehensive text offers a systematic study of the physical nature of drylands and the history of human response to and uses of these harsh landscapes Detailed case studies including urban as well as pastoral drylands from California to Soviet Central Asia the Middle East the Sahara and Australia contrast different management approaches and problems Excavations at the Early Bronze IV Sites of Jebel Qa'aqir and Be'er Resisim William G. Dever, 2018-07-17 This volume is the final report of excavations carried out in the Hebron hills and the Negev desert in 1967-1980 on behalf of Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem and the University of Arizona They were pioneering multidisciplinary projects that helped to illuminate what was then a poorly known Dark Age in the cultural history of ancient Palestine a nonurban interlude of pastoral nomadic movements over several centuries ca 2400-2000 B C E between the great urban civilizations of the early Bronze Ages Eighteen appendixes by specialists in many disciplines analyze all aspects of material culture and human and animal remains A history of previous scholarship and a synthesis of the EB IV period in both Israel and Jordan conclude the volume which will be a landmark study for many years

Nuclear Power and Economic Development in Israel Hans H. Landsberg, George Perazich, 1957 Society and Settlement Aharon Kellerman, 2012-03-21 This book scrutinizes the interrelationships between Jewish spatial organization and social structure and change in Palestine Israel Kellerman analyzes the development of nationwide and regional settlements and reasons for spatial and territorial choices such as cooperative villages He uncovers the extreme differences between the old and the new in Jewish settlement patterns and discusses the implications for cultural development economic functions urban spirit and international status in evolving Israeli society Congressional Record United States.

Congress, 1993 The Policy Impact of Universities in Developing Regions Frederick A. Lazin, 1988-06-18 An examination of the role of universities in developing regions The themes include the development role of a university in peripheral regions as diverse as northern Sweden and southern Israel and the role of universities in training professional administrators and doctors Water in the Middle East Karl David Hambright, F. J. Ragep, J. Ginat, 2006-01-01 Scarcity of water is a problem in many areas around the world In this sense the Middle East which suffers from frequent droughts and a shortage of potable water is not unique However when political disagreements among states combine with issues of fair and equitable access to common water resources the problems associated with water scarcity seem intractable In this sense the Middle East and particularly the Jordan River Valley is indeed unique This enlightening book brings together the insights of scholars from Israel Palestine Jordan and the United States who employ a broad range of perspectives and disciplines engineering agronomy biology economics history geography and political science to examine the significance of water in Middle East conflicts These contributors do not offer facile remedies Rather they show that any solution must be achieved within a political and social framework of peace enlightened economic policies and technical measures that take due account of environmental conditions This volume is the result of the conference Water in the Jordan Valley sponsored by the Center for Peace Studies a division of the International Programs Center at the University of Oklahoma The Middle East in the 1990's United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, 1991

Desert in the Promised Land Yael Zerubavel, 2023-05-25 A complex and fascinating portrait of Israel an engaging book that combines anthropology culture and history Anita Shapira author of Ben Gurion Father of Modern Israel At once an ecological phenomenon and a cultural construction the desert has varied associations within Zionist and Israeli culture In the Judaic textual tradition it evokes exile and punishment yet is also a site for origin myths the divine presence and sanctity Secular Zionism developed its own spin on the duality of the desert as the romantic site of Jews biblical roots that inspired the Hebrew culture and as the barren land outside the Jewish settlements in Palestine featuring them as an oasis of order and technological progress within a symbolic desert Yael Zerubavel tells the story of the desert from the early twentieth century to the present shedding light on romantic mythical associations settlement and security concerns environmental sympathies and the commodifying tourist gaze Drawing on literary narratives educational texts newspaper articles tourist materials films popular songs posters photographs and cartoons Zerubavel reveals the complexities and contradictions that mark Israeli society's semiotics of space in relation to the Middle East and the central role of the besieged island trope in Israeli culture and politics
