

The New Middle East

James L. Gelvin

The New Middle East:

The New Middle East Shimon Peres, Arye Naor, 1993 The Israeli Minister of Foreign Affairs offers a vision of the future for the Middle East He sees a reconstructed region free of past conflicts set to take its place in a new era one that will not tolerate backwardness or ignorance and a social and economic revival fuelled by the billions of dollars wasted for decades on defence He also offers an analysis of how peace can be achieved seeking nothing short of an historic new chapter between two peoples an end to 100 years of hostility and a beginning of 100 years of peace and understanding

The New Middle East James L. Gelvin, 2017-10-03 In the aftermath of the collapse of the USSR the American invasion of Iraq and the Arab uprisings of 2010-11 a new Middle East has emerged The Syrian civil war has displaced half the country's population and ISIS and other jihadi groups thrive in the political vacuum there and in Iraq setting a new standard for political violence Meanwhile regimes in Egypt and Bahrain have become even more repressive after the uprisings there and Libya and Yemen have virtually ceased to exist as states The hallmarks of this new Middle East are rebellion and repression proxy wars sectarian strife the rise of the Islamic State and intraregional polarization International and regional actors stoke the flames with the United States and Russia seeking to reposition themselves in the region and Saudi Arabia and Iran vying for supremacy In the long term perils including climate change food and water insecurity and population growth along with bad governance and stagnant economies will determine the destiny of the region

The New Middle East What Everyone Needs to Know renowned Middle East scholar James L. Gelvin explains all these developments and more in a concise question and answer format Outlining the social political and economic contours of the New Middle East he illuminates the current crisis in the region and explores how the region will continue to change in the decades to come

The New Middle East James L. Gelvin, 2023 In the second edition of The New Middle East What Everyone Needs to Know renowned Middle East scholar James L. Gelvin explains how in the aftermath of the collapse of the USSR the American invasion of Iraq and the Arab uprisings of 2010-11 a new Middle East has emerged Syria Libya and Yemen have become crisis states where warlords vie against governments and each other The economies of Iran Turkey and Lebanon weakened by corruption sanctions and neoliberal economic policies have imploded Some states have doubled down on repression while others intervene in the internal affairs of their neighbors with impunity The revised and expanded edition explores these hallmarks of the New Middle East along with the end of American hegemony in the region the expansion of conflict zones the continued centrality of the Saudi Iranian competition and the ramifications of the breakdown of the Israel Palestine peace process It also highlights the crisis of human security brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic bad governance stagnant economies poor healthcare and educational delivery systems climate change food and water insecurity population growth and imbalance and the unprecedented displacement of populations In a concise question and answer format Gelvin outlines the social political and economic contours of the New Middle East illuminating the current crisis in the region and exploring how it is likely to evolve in the decades to come The New Middle East Paul Danahar,2013-08-15 In 2011 the Arab revolts changed the Middle East forever The toppling of a generation of dictators left the region in turmoil Has the promise of the Arab Spring been lost What does the rise of religious extremism on Europe s doorstep mean for the West and its allies Is America giving up on the region and if so who will lead the new Middle East Drawing on compelling first hand reporting a deep knowledge of the region s history and access to many of the key players BBC Bureau Chief Paul Danahar lays bare the forces that are shaping the region Now completely revised and updated to include everything that has happened in the region since the book was first published The New Middle East Fawaz A. Gerges,2013-12-30 The New Middle East is one of the first comprehensive books to critically examine the Arab popular uprisings of 2011 12 While these uprisings prompted a number of cursory publications this volume contains meticulous and thoughtful reflections on the causes drivers and effects of these seminal events on the internal regional and international politics of the Middle East and North Africa Although specific conditions in individual countries that have experienced large scale popular mobilizations are investigated they are neither treated in isolation nor separated from broader developments in the region Instead the authors highlight connections between individual case studies and systemic conditions throughout the Arab arena These include the crisis of political authority the failure of economic development and new genres of mobilization and activism especially communication technology and youth movements The careful analysis and reflection on the prospects for democratic change in the region ensures the book will have both an immediate and enduring appeal The New Middle East James L. Gelvin,2023 In the second edition of The New Middle East What Everyone Needs to Know renowned Middle East scholar James L Gelvin explains how in the aftermath of the collapse of the USSR the American invasion of Iraq and the Arab uprisings of 2010 11 a new Middle East has emerged Syria Libya and Yemen have become crisis states where warlords vie against governments and each other The economies of Iran Turkey and Lebanon weakened by corruption sanctions and neoliberal economic policies have imploded Some states have doubled down on repression while others intervene in the internal affairs of their neighbors with impunity The revised and expanded edition explores these hallmarks of the New Middle East along with the end of American hegemony in the region the expansion of conflict zones the continued centrality of the Saudi Iranian competition and the ramifications of the breakdown of the Israel Palestine peace process It also highlights the crisis of human security brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic bad governance stagnant economies poor healthcare and educational delivery systems climate change food and water insecurity population growth and imbalance and the unprecedented displacement of populations In a concise question and answer format Gelvin outlines the social political and economic contours of the New Middle East illuminating the current crisis in the region and exploring how it is likely to evolve in the decades to come

Geopolitics of the New Middle East Şaban Kardaş,Bülent Aras,2023-06-26 This edited book takes a critical look at the geopolitics of the broader Middle East and North Africa MENA region It scrutinizes some of the perennial issues shaping the regional security agenda as well as the emerging geopolitical trends in the wake of a decade of turmoil triggered by the demands for political and economic reforms. The contributors explore the geopolitical implications of the structural transformation process in the MENA region and beyond which has unleashed destabilizing forces and multifaceted conflicts with the involvement of many local regional and global actors. They also look at how some of the regional actors have reacted to the risks and security challenges produced by the wave of instability and conflicts and conducted their foreign policy in this volatile period of fluid alliances. Other contributors explore the roles and perspectives of major extra regional actors delving deeper into how they have adjusted their policies towards the emergence of a new order and reshuffling of alignments. This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of politics international relations and political geography. It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Balkan and Near Eastern Studies. New Media and the New Middle East Philip Seib, 2007-08-06. In this book leading international scholars examine the way new media is reshaping lives and politics. Covering topics from women's rights to terrorism and countries from Israel to Saudi Arabia these authors explore the global and regional ramifications of the proliferation of communication technologies and the information they disseminate. The Epicenter of Crisis Alexander T.J. Lennon, 2008-01-11. Analysis of the security challenges presented by six states in the crucible of post 9/11 geopolitical change: Saudi Arabia, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, and Pakistan. The Epicenter of Crisis argues that six contiguous states epitomize the security challenges of a post 9/11 globalized world: Saudi Arabia, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, and Pakistan. Characterized by a dramatically transforming Islam, ethnic conflict, civil war, failed states, and terrorism, this new Middle East is the epicenter of what some call an arc of crisis stretching from the Balkans into Southeast Asia. The Epicenter of Crisis examines this geopolitically dynamic region, analyzing the changing role of Islam in these six critical countries, the dangers posed by potential failed states, and the evolving terrorist threat. The contributors, all specialists in Middle East or foreign policy, address such crucial issues as the relationship between the Saudi royal family and Al Qaeda, Syria's waning influence over Hizbollah, media coverage of the war in Iraq, a new U.S. strategy for dealing with Iran, Afghanistan's opium industry, and the effectiveness of U.S. multi-billion dollar assistance to Pakistan. The Epicenter of Crisis challenges readers to reconceptualize the boundaries of the Middle East in a changed world. Contributors: John R. Bradley, Rachel Bronson, Daniel Byman, Derek Chollet, Craig Cohen, Larry Diamond, Emile El-Hokayem, Vanda Felbab Brown, Brian Fishman, Graham E. Fuller, Husain Haqqani, Elliot Hen-Tov, Jorrit Kamminga, Nina Kamp, Alexander T.J. Lennon, Michael McFaul, Abbas Milani, C. Raja Mohan, Michael O'Hanlon, Gwenn Okruhlik, Carlos Pascual, Kenneth M. Pollack, Dennis Ross, Karim Sadjadpour, Ashley Tellis, Peter van Ham, Eyal Zisser. Battleground Christopher Phillips, 2024-02-27. The essential guide to geopolitics in the modern Middle East. The Middle East is in crisis. The shocking events of the war in Gaza have rocked the entire region. More than a decade ago the Arab Spring had raised hopes of a new beginning but instead ushered in a series of civil wars, coups, and even harsher autocracies. Tensions were exacerbated by the meddling of outsiders.

as regional and global powers sought to further their interests The United States for so long the dominant actor had stepped back leaving a vacuum behind it to be fought over Christopher Phillips explores geopolitical rivalries in the region and the major external powers vying for influence Russia China the EU and the US Moving through ten key flashpoints from Syria to Palestine Phillips argues that the United States overextension after the Cold War and retreat in the 2010s has imbalanced the region Today the Middle East remains blighted by conflicts of unprecedented violence and a post American scramble for power leaving its fate in the balance
