

THE MYSTERY OF GOD'S WILL

STUDY ONE

Foundational Principles about God's Will

Selected Scriptures

God's will is a profound, unfathomable subject. The better you get to know the Word of God, the less confusing is the will of God. Those who struggle the least with the will of God are those who know the Word of God best.

—Pastor Charles R. Swindoll

TRAGIC news flooded the airways. Two young, athletic brothers, one an accomplished professional ice hockey player, were instantly killed by a drunk driver while riding their bicycles together on a rural road. What made this tragedy worse, if even possible, is that the event occurred on the eve of their sister's wedding, and these men were groomsmen.

Such senseless accounts horrify us. They cause us to ask, "How could this happen?" and "Where was God?" . . . along with many other questions. For Christians, such tragedies can be even tougher to understand because we know God is good and powerful and could prevent them. And yet, He allows them to happen, and we wonder, Why?

Like astronomers studying the night sky, we peer into the vastness of God, searching His mind for reasons, motives, and intentions. When calamity strikes, we look up for answers. But even our best theological telescopes are too weak to reveal the furthest reaches of God's purposes.

Thankfully, God has not left us in total darkness. He has given us His Word which sheds light on the subject of God's will—even though many things about His ways remain mysterious on this side of heaven.

This Searching the Scriptures Bible-study series explores the mystery of God's will. Truth about God's heart, ways, and purposes thread through every page of Scripture. In this study, we lay foundational principles that elucidate important facets of God's will, including what He decrees and what He permits.
