Skinner, 2013-04-11 This volume examines characters in the Fourth Gospel and provides an in depth look at different approaches currently employed by scholars working with literary and reader oriented methods Divided into two sections the book first considers method and theory followed by exegetical character studies using a literary or reader oriented method It summarizes the state of the discussion examines obstacles to arriving at a comprehensive theory of character in the Fourth Gospel compares different approaches and compiles the diverse methodologies into one comparative study Through this detailed exegesis the various theories will come alive and the merits or deficiencies of each approach will be available to the reader This volume is both a comprehensive study in narrative reader oriented theories and a study in the application of those theories as they apply to characterization Summing up current research on characters and characterization in the Fourth Gospel this book also provides a comprehensive presentation of different approaches to character that have developed in recent years

Transcendence and Understanding Zdenko S. Sirka, 2020-03-04 This book brings into conversation Western and Orthodox hermeneutical schools one represented by Hans Georg Gadamer and his followers while the other school is less focused around one person and yet displays common distinct features The main question of the book is how we can mediate not only the content of understanding of who we are in relation to each other to the world in which we live and to God but also comprehend the process of understanding across various historical periods The strengths and weaknesses of both positions are presented and it is shown how these two hermeneutical approaches can enrich each other The book argues that preserving both positions and indicating how they complement each other helps show the limits of encountering the
