The Nationalisation Of Multinationals In Peripheral Economies:

Nationalization of Multinationals in Peripheral Economies Julio Faundez, Sol Picciotto, 1978-06-17 The Nationalization of Multinationals in Peripheral Economies Julio Faúndez, Sol Picciotto, 1978 Indigenization of African Economies Adebayo Adedeji, 2023-08-18 Originally published in 1981 this book examines the progress of a number of national efforts to move towards economic self reliance It consists of case studies from Egypt Zambia Ghana Nigeria Kenya Tanzania Ethiopia Botswana Lesotho and Swaziland and Senegal The studies are set in a framework that outlines the historical background to African economic dependence and they discuss the theoretical and practical implications of that dependence It makes an important contribution to the study of indigenization bringing together a group of African specialists writing from the inside and articulating the continent s challenges with convincing authority The Oxford Handbook of International Business Alan M. Rugman, 2010-08-26 As globalization explodes so has international business scholarship This second edition of the Oxford Handbook of International Business synthesises all the relevant literature of the last 40 years in 28 original chapters by the world s most distinguished scholars Reflecting the changes and development in the field since the first edition this new edition has a changed structure all the chapters have been updated to take account of the latest scholarship and five new chapters freshly written The Handbook is divided into six major sections providing comprehensive coverage of the following areas History and Theory of the Multinational Enterprise The Political and Regulatory Environment Strategy and International Management Managing the MNE Area Studies Methodological Issues These state of the art literature reviews will be invaluable references for students in business schools social sciences law and area studies Nationalisation Keith Coleman, 1991 Keith Coleman makes a timely and refreshing contribution to a debate more often obscured by dogmatism and hot air than rational discussion His eye remains unerringly on the central problem of structural inequality particularly in South Africa Frederick van Zyl Slabbert IDASA director Routledge Library Editions: Economic Geography Various, 2021-06-23 The books in this set originally published between 1968 and 1992 introduce the reader to the many lines of thought in the literature on economic geography and tie these various aspects together within the concept of the economy As well as providing a comprehensive overview of the Western European economy since the Second World War and including specific studies and assessments of the Dutch and Italian economies these volumes examine the economic factors that have shaped cities and patterns of urbanization Transnational Corporations and Uneven Development (RLE International Business) Rhys Jenkins, 2013-02-15 Is the transnational corporation TNC an engine of growth capable of eliminating international economic inequalities or a major obstacle to development through a massive drain of surplus to advanced countries This book presents five different perspectives on the role of TNCs Neo Classical Global Reach Neo Imperialist Neo Fundamentalist Internationalization of capital The author looks at their effect on local labour and capital and considers the future prospects for TNC involvement in the Third World The book provides an excellent comparative analysis of TNCs and will appeal to students in development studies and international economics

The Western European Economy Allan M. Williams, 2015-03-27 This book originally published in 1987 presents a broad overview of the spatial organization of the European economy providing a valuable synthesis of recently published material by geographers and other social scientists A major theme is the interdependence of economic development at various scales The three main sections look at international and European economic context detailed changes in particular sectors specific types of regional economic formations Case studies are used and reference made to historical processes

Regulating Global Corporate Capitalism Sol Picciotto, 2011-05-12 This analysis of how multi level networked governance has superseded the liberal system of interdependent states focuses on the role of law in mediating power and shows how lawyers have shaped the main features of capitalism especially the transnational corporation It covers the main institutions regulating the world economy including the World Bank the IMF the WTO and a myriad of other bodies and introduces the reader to key regulatory arenas corporate governance competition policy investment protection anti corruption rules corporate codes and corporate liability international taxation avoidance and evasion and the campaign to combat them the offshore finance system international financial regulation and its contribution to the financial crisis trade rules and their interaction with standards especially for food safety and environmental protection the regulation of key services telecommunications and finance intellectual property and the tensions between exclusive private rights and emergent forms of common and collective property in knowledge

The Dynamics of Market Integration Kenneth Kaoma Mwenda, 2000 This book looks at contemporary issues facing financial markets in Eastern and Southern Africa The book addresses strategies for capital market integration and development on a region wide basis An argument is made that the establishment of a regional stock exchange and the promotion of multiple listings and cross border trade in securities would stimulate increased liquidity on national stock exchanges in Eastern and Southern Africa Lessons of experience are drawn from other regions and a case is made against transplanting models of a regional stock exchange from one region to another The book argues that African countries may however use lessons of experience from other regions as points of reference while pursuing their own discourse of self determination Each case is unique and is thus surrounded by different variables The book covers developments in regions such as the European Union francophone West Africa and Eastern and Southern Africa Indeed an international and comparative perspective is provided
