Giuseppe Mazzini (1805-1872)

The founder of Young Italy (1831) was perhaps the leading figure in liberal nationalism. He saw the creation of a democratic Italian state as crucial to Italy's development.

Europe no longer possesses unity of faith, of mission, or of aim. Such unity is a necessity in the world. Here, then, is the secret of the crisis. It is the duty of every one to examine and analyse calmly and carefully the probable elements of this new unity. But those who persist in perpetuating, by violence or by Jesuitical compromise, the external observance of the old unity, only perpetuate the crisis, and render its issue more violent.

There are in Europe two great questions; or, rather, the question of the transformation of

The Asian Modern C. J. Wan-ling Wee, 2007 How does one comprehend the phenomenon of the modernization of an Asian society in a globalized East Asian context With this opening question the author proceeds to give an account of how the modernization processes for postcolonial societies in Asia such as those of India Malaysia and Singapore are fraught with collaborations and conflicts between different socio political historical economic and cultural agents Weak

Nationalisms Douglas Dowland, 2019-07-01 The question What is America has taken on new urgency Weak Nationalisms explores the emotional dynamics behind that question by examining how a range of authors have attempted to answer it through nonfiction since the Second World War revealing the complex and dynamic ways in which affects shape the literary construction of everyday experience in the United States Douglas Dowland studies these attempts to define the nation in an eclectic selection of texts from writers such as Simone de Beauvoir John Steinbeck Charles Kuralt Jane Smiley and Sarah Vowell Each of these texts makes use of synecdoche and Weak Nationalisms shows how this rhetorical technique is variously driven by affects including curiosity discontent hopefulness and incredulity In exploring the function of synecdoche in the creative construction of the United States Dowland draws attention to the evocative politics and literary richness of nationalism and connects critical literary practices to broader discussions involving affect theory and cultural representation

Reconsidering Regions in an Era of New Nationalism Alexander Finkelstein, Anne Farrar Hyde, 2023 Regions connect and divide us even as global economies weather and germs batter us Historians literary scholars and social scientists use region to ground and challenge ideas about national belonging In Reconsidering Regions in an Era of New Nationalism Alexander Finkelstein and Anne F Hyde have assembled leading scholars of regionalism to discuss the relationship of region to nation The contributors explore how historical forces have changed regional associations and how regional associations have changed culture and history The themes of culture space and institutions organize this volume contributors historicize how race and racial thinking have evolved as a major force to define region and nation over time the essays raise questions about the stability and validity of canonical regions in U S history to find new complexity in how these blocs form and how they understand themselves and they focus on historicist and conjunctural trends in how institutions and ordinary people conceive regions through political and cultural processes over time Challenging ideas about both national belonging and local association the contributors emphasize how regional analysis deepens understanding of migration race borders infrastructure climate and Native sovereignty Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict, revised edition Michael E.

Brown, Owen R. Cote, Jr., Sean M. Lynn-Jones, Steven E. Miller, 2001-09-14 Understanding the roots and causes of ethnic animosity analyses of recent events in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia and the former Soviet Union Most recent wars have been complex and bloody internal conflicts driven to a significant degree by nationalism and ethnic animosity Since the end of the Cold War dozens of wars in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia the former Soviet Union and elsewhere have killed or displaced millions of people Understanding and controlling these wars has become one of the most important and frustrating tasks for scholars and political leaders This revised and expanded edition of Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict contains essays from some of the world's leading analysts of nationalism ethnic conflict and internal war The essays from the first edition have been updated and supplemented by analyses of recent conflicts and new research on the resolution of ethnic and civil wars The first part of the book addresses the roots of nationalistic and ethnic wars focusing in particular on the former Yugoslavia The second part assesses options for international action including the use of force and the deployment of peacekeeping troops The third part examines political challenges that often complicate attempts to prevent or end internal conflicts including refugee flows and the special difficulties of resolving civil wars New Challenges for Stateless

Nationalist and Regionalist Parties Eve Hepburn, 2013-10-18 Throughout Europe stateless nationalist and regionalist parties have moved from niche actors in party systems to mainstream political players No longer the outsider in party politics these parties have successfully entered government at the regional and state levels and many have been responsible for pushing the agenda for radical constitutional change in the United Kingdom Spain Italy Belgium Germany and France However the transformation of these parties from peripheral movements to established parties of government does not come without its problems Whilst these parties were once able to focus on the single issue of self determination they have been forced to change their strategies alter their behaviour and compromise on their principles in order to succeed in an era of electoral volatility partisan dealignment and multi level governance This book explores how stateless nationalist and regionalist parties across Western Europe have responded to the twin challenges of multi level politics i.e. operating at the regional state and European levels and a multi dimensional policy space whereby they must articulate policy proposals alongside their territorial demands Written by leading experts in the field this is a cutting edge collection of theoretical analytical and empirical work on the challenges currently facing nationalist and regionalist parties in Europe This book was previously published as a special issue of Regional and Federal Studies After Nationalism Samuel Goldman,2021-06-04

Nationalism is on the rise across the Western world serving as a rallying cry for voters angry at the unacknowledged failures of the consensus in favor of globalization that has dominated politics and economics since the end of the Cold War In After Nationalism Samuel Goldman trains a sympathetic but skeptical eye on the trend highlighting the deep challenges that face any contemporary effort to revive social cohesion at the national level Noting the many obstacles standing in the way of basing any political project on widely shared values and beliefs Goldman points to three pillars of mid twentieth century nationalism all of which are absent today coercive Americanization total mobilization for war and widespread religious faith Most of today s nationalists fail to recognize these necessary underpinnings of any renewed nationalism or the potentially troubling activities and consequences that they would engender including extensive state activism in Americanization efforts and the massive growth of government that tends to accompany military mobilization For that reason Goldman concludes those worried about the need for social cohesion should move in the opposite direction toward support for political projects grounded in local communities The Politics of Nationalism in Modern Iran 'Ali Mīr'Anṣari,2012 APAIS 1992:
