Proceedings of the 12th European Conference on Information Warfare and Security Rauno Kuusisto, Erkki Kurkinen, 2013-11-07

Arms Sales and Regional Stability The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2023-04-28 The book considers the main arms exporting countries including China Russia and the US as well as several European states and the policies each employs in deciding advanced weapons sales to key regions of the world It examines whether such sales are inherently stabilising or de stabilising regarding regional security Regions reviewed in detail include the Middle East and the Indo Pacific Combat aircraft sales are a focus for the volume given both their practical and symbolic importance The volume focuses on the behaviour and policies of the main arms exporting nations since the end of the Cold War shifts in their arms export policies and the tensions that can emerge within or between countries over proposed arms sales It also considers the impact of countries that were previously only recipients of advanced weapons moving to develop their own defence industrial base Denationalisation of Defence Janne Haaland Matlary, Øyvind Østerud, 2016-05-23 Denationalisation of Defence consists of two major parts first a generic and analytical section which presents the developmental trends in privatization and internationalization of armed force and second an empirical section analyzing the impact of these trends on the Nordic countries defence and security sectors The Nordic countries have a special relevance as objects of study given their traditionally strong public spheres and state orientated systems of governance This volume questions whether the process of denationalization has reached a point where countries are reacting to changes in their security environment by increasingly introducing elements of privatization and international integration Militarizing the Environment Robert P. Marzec, 2015-12-21 As the seriousness of climate change becomes more and more obvious military institutions are responding by taking a prominent role in the governing of environmental concerns engaging in climate change war games and preparing for the effects of climate change from conflicts due to loss of food water and energy to the mass migration of millions of people displaced by rising sea levels This combat oriented stance stems from a self destructive pattern of thought that Robert P Marzec names environmentality an attitude that has been affecting human environmental relations since the seventeenth century Militarizing the Environment traces the rise of this influential mindset in America and other nations that threatens to supplant ideas of sustainability with demands for adaptation In this extensive historical study of scientific military political and economic formations across five centuries Marzec reveals how environmentality has been instrumental in the development of today's security society informing the creation of the military industrial complex during World War II and the National Security Act that established the CIA during the Cold War Now embedded in contemporary Western thought environmentality has even infiltrated scientific thinking transforming Darwinian insights into a quasi theology that makes security the biological basis of existence Marzec exposes the self destructive nature of this increasingly accepted worldview and offers alternatives that counter the blind alleys of national and global security Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas, 2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship Counterterrorism Ronald Crelinsten, 2013-04-17 Terrorism has emerged as one of the most problematic issues facing national governments and the international community in the 21st century But how is it possible to counter terrorism in a world in which governance is still dominated by the nation state Are we seeing new forms of terrorist activity in the wake of 9 11 Are pre 9 11 approaches still valid How can we combat and control diverse threats of multiple origin Who should be responsible for countering terrorism and in what circumstances In this incisive new book Ronald Crelinsten seeks to provide answers to these pressing questions challenging readers to think beyond disciplinary and jurisdictional boundaries He presents an up to date and comprehensive introduction to the difficulties and obstacles related to countering terrorism in democratic societies The counterterrorism framework that he develops in this book reflects the complex world in which we live The different approaches to counterterrorism provide the organizing theme of the book and help the reader to understand and to appreciate the full range of options available The book includes a host of contemporary examples and further readings compares and contrasts pre and post 9 11 approaches critically evaluates the post 9 11 war on terror moves beyond a purely state centric focus to include non state actors and institutions combines hard and soft power approaches considers prevention preparedness response and recovery Counterterrorism will be an indispensable guide for students researchers practitioners and general readers wanting to broaden their knowledge of the possibilities and limitations of counterterrorism today
