Sir Brian Horrocks Corps Commander:

Horrocks Philip Warner, 1984 Sir Brian Horrocks var en af de allieredes mest fremgangsrige generaler under 2 verdenskrig h jt respekteret af undergivne ligestillede og foresatte Her berettes om hans indsats i Nordafrika hvor han s res alvorligt og senere som chef for 30 korps i Nordafrika Belgien og Holland Brian Horrocks Philip Warner, 2014 Often described as Britain s answer to Rommel the charismatic and courageous Sir Brian Horrocks was one of the most successful field commanders of the Second World War much of which he spent working with Montgomery His tireless drive and brilliance were admired and respected not only by Montgomery but by very many around him Philip Warner once again shows us the man behind the image in his own revealing and engaging way Tracing his journey from youth through the hurdles and troubles of World War I to his brilliant campaigns in North Africa and Europe in the Second World War that helped to throw off the terrible scourge of Nazism The book shows how Horrocks could achieve so much by his brilliant handling of the forces under him into a fearsome fighting unit Corps Commander Brian Horrocks, Sir Brian Horrocks, Eversley Michael Gallimore Belfield, Hubert Essame, 1977 Corps Commander Eversley Belfield, Major-General H Essame, Sir Brian Horrocks, 2023-03-23 This is the story of a great campaign from D Day to VE Day told by one of Britain s foremost fighting generals Corps Commander is a military history with a difference as Lieutenant General Sir Brian Horrocks witnessed battle from two very different perspectives First from the front line where he was actively involved in the fighting as at Arnhem And then from the standpoint of high strategy when he was in regular contact with Eisenhower Montgomery and other commanders Yet in this book Sir Brian tells far more than his own story His collaboration with two distinguished military historians Eversley Belfield and Major General H Essame has produced a book of wide scope and XXX Corps is presented against the backdrop of a much wider campaign The result is a gripping description of a key fighting unit combined with a vivid and authoritative account of how the Allies won final victory in the West Corps Commander is bound to please readers who enjoy military history and strategy and those particularly interested in World War II Lieutenant General Sir Brian Horrocks KCB KBE DSO MC 1895 1985 was a highly respected commander in the British Army perhaps best known for commanding XXX Corps in Operation Market Garden and several other World War II campaigns After the war he was also a television presenter author and for 14 years Black Rod in the House of Lords Eversley Belfield was born in 1918 and educated at Ampleforth College and Pembroke College Oxford where the war interrupted his studies During the Second World War he served with the Royal Artillery and was an Air Observation Pilot in the North West European campaign with the Canadian Army He later became a lecturer specialising in military history Major General Hubert Essame 1896 1976 saw action at the Somme in 1916 with the Northamptonshire Regiment During the Second World War he commanded 214 Brigade in 43rd Division Following retirement he wrote several books on military history United States Army Combat Forces Journal , 1978 Military Review , 1985 The British Way in Warfare: Power and the International System,

1856-1956 Keith Neilson, 2016-03-16 In his groundbreaking book The British Way in Warfare Routledge 1990 David French outlined the skillful combination of maritime economic and diplomatic power employed by Britain to achieve its international goals Almost two decades later this collection offers a reassessment of French's thesis using it as a lens through which to explore Britain's relationship with various kinds of power military and civil and how this was employed across the globe In particular each essay addresses the ways in which the use of power manifested itself in the maintenance of Britain's place within the international system between 1856 and 1956 Adopting twin methodologies the collection firstly addresses the broad question of Britain's relationship with other Great Powers and how these influenced the strategies used before then testing these with specific case studies By taking this approach it is possible to discern which policies were successful and which failed and whether these remained constant across time and space Measuring Britain's strategy against her commercial imperial and military competitors including France the USA Italy Germany and Russia allows intriguing conclusions to be drawn about just how an essentially maritime power could compete with much larger and potentially more powerful continental rivals With contributions from an outstanding selection of military scholars this collection addresses fundamental questions about the intersection of military economic and diplomatic history that are as relevant today as they were during the height of Britain's imperial power It will prove essential reading not only for those with an interest in British military history but for anyone wishing to understand how power in all its multifaceted guises can be employed for national advantage on the international stage First Polish Armoured Division 1938-47 Evan McGilvray, Janusz

Jarzemowski, 2022-07-20 If the Polish armed forces are of interest to you this title covering their distinguished service during World War II should appeal to many Armorama The First Polish Armored Division was formed in Scotland in February 1942 from Polish exiles who had escaped first Poland and then France Its commander Stanislaw Maczek and many of its men had previously served in Polish 10th Motorized Cavalry Brigade 10 BKS which had taken part in the Polish invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1938 and given a good account of itself in the defense of Poland against German and Soviet invasion of 1939 Under Maczek's leadership the division was trained and equipped along British lines in preparation for the invasion of France Attached to 1st Canadian Army the division was sent to Normandy in late July 1944 It suffered heavily during Operation Totalize but went on to play a crucial role in preventing an orderly German withdrawal from the Falaise Pocket by its stand at Hill 262 They then played their part in the advance across Western Europe and into Germany This detailed history supported by dozens of archive photos concludes by looking at the often poor treatment of Maczek and his men after the war A Polish armoured division comprising volunteers from Polish refugees it reads like a story from the Boys Own Paper Astonishing Books Monthly Fire and Steel Peter Caddick-Adams, 2022-06-06 An account of the blazing final hundred days of World War Two in Europe bringing to a close Peter Caddick Adams monumental trilogy of the last year of Allied fighting against the German armies on the Western front 8th Battalion The Durham Light Infantry 1939-1945 Major P.J.

Lewis, Major I.R. English, 2011-12-23 Few regiments in the British army played such a prominent and widespread part in the Second World War as the Durham Light Infantry This is the full official account of the 8th battalion of the regiment s role in the conflict in which the DLI in general and the 8th battalion in particular more than upheld its long and proud traditions in the words of the foreword to this book by Lt Gen Sir Brian Horrocks who had the 8th DLI under his command both in North Africa and in Europe Every man that served in this great battalion can say to himself with pride I did more than my share to win the war The 8th DLI were part of the BEF sent to France in 1939 As such they withstood the onslaught of the German Blitzkrieg in May 1940 taking part in the British counter strike at Arras and the retreat to Dunkirk They were soon in action again this time at Gazala in North Africa where they were again attacked by German forces under Rommel The 8th DLI formed part of the victorious offensive at El Alamein and fought through to the dour slogging match to break the Mareth Line Subsequently they took part in the invasion of Sicily D Day and the battles of Gheel and Nijmegen in Holland This book as Horrocks says is a First class battalion history written by two former battalion officers It comes complete with appendices listing Rolls of honour and awards along with some 20 photographs and fourteen maps
