Meat Culture Annie Potts,2016-11-21 The analysis of meat and its place in Western culture has been central to Human Animal Studies as a field It is even more urgent now as global meat and dairy production are projected to rise dramatically by 2050 While the term carnism denotes the invisible belief system or ideology that naturalizes and normalizes meat consumption in this volume we focus on meat culture which refers to all the tangible and practical forms through which carnist ideology is expressed and lived Featuring new work from leading Australasian European and North American scholars Meat Culture edited by Annie Potts interrogates the representations and discourses practices and behaviours diets and tastes that generate shared beliefs about perspectives on and experiences of meat in the 21st century Climate Consciousness and Environmental Activism in Composition Joseph R. Lease,2020-02-18 Now more than ever in a time when

Americans still do not believe that humans are the primary cause of Earth's climate change crisis the burden on educators to inform challenge and motivate students about sustainability is greater than it ever has been On college campuses writing intensive courses often located within First Year or General Education curricula are an ideal place to take up this charge because of the flexibility of their content and the high volume of students that they reach In this volume a varied group of composition instructors with wide ranges and types of experiences provides best practices for bringing issues surrounding climate change into the writing classroom From literature based composition and creative writing courses to design thinking workshops to seminars against sustainability the authors in this volume lay out a multitude of possibilities for blending writing and environmental concerns that fellow practitioners can easily adopt or modify for their own use

Feminism and Ecological Communities Christine Cuomo, 2002-09-11 Feminism and Ecological Communities presents a bold and passionate rethinking of the ecofeminist movement It is one of the first books to acknowledge the importance of postmodern feminist arguments against ecofeminism whilst persuasively presenting a strong new case for ecofeminism Chris J Cuomo first traces the emergence of ecofeminism from the ecological and feminist movements before clearly discussing the weaknesses of some ecofeminist positions Exploring the dualisms of nature culture and masculinizing feminine that are the bulwark of many contemporary ecofeminist positions and questioning traditional feminist analyses of gender and caring Feminism and Ecological Communities asks whether women are essentially closer to nature than men and how we ought to link the oppression of women people of colour and other subjugated groups to the degradation of nature Chris J Cuomo addresses these key issues by drawing on recent work in feminist ethics as well as the work of diverse figures such as Aristotle John Dewey Donna Haraway and Maria Lugones A fascinating feature of the book is the use of the metaphor of the cyborg to highlight the fluidity of the nature culture distinction and how this can enrich ecofeminist ethics and politics An outstanding new argument for an ecological feminism that links both theory and practice Feminism and Ecological Communities bravely redraws the ecofeminist map It will be essential reading for all those interested in gender studies environmental studies and philosophy

Eco-man Mark Christopher Allister, 2004 Many canonical literary works look to the wild as the site for establishing a man's selfhood But nature is just as often subjected to his most violent displays of mastery This tension lies at the heart of Eco Man which brings together two rapidly growing fields men's studies and ecocriticism

The ISLE Reader Michael P. Branch, Scott Slovic, 2003 This volume gathers nineteen of the most representative and defining essays from the journal ISLE Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and Environment over the course of its first ten years Following an introduction that traces the stages of ecocriticism's development The ISLE Reader is organized into three sections each of which reflects one of the general goals the journal has sought to accomplish The section titled Re-evaluations provides new readings of familiar environmental writers and new environmental perspectives on authors or literary traditions not usually considered from a green perspective The writings in Reaching Out to Other Disciplines promote cross pollination among various disciplines and methodologies in the environmental arts and humanities The writings in the final section New Theoretical and Practical Paradigms are especially significant for the conceptual and methodological terrain they map The ISLE Reader documents the state of research in ecocriticism and related interdisciplinary fields provides a survey of the field and points to new methodologies and possibilities for the future
