by a few faithful retainers he was now on his way to perform that sacrifice Augustus was carried in his litter for he was old and the long stairs to the Capitol fatigued him He held the cage of doves which was his offering Neither priests nor soldiers nor councillors accompanied him only his nearest friends Torch bearers walked in front of him as if to force a way through the darkness of the night and behind him followed slaves carrying the tripod the charcoal the knives the holy fire and everything needed for the sacrifice On the way the emperor chatted gayly with his retainers and none of them noticed the infinite silence and calm of the night It was only on reaching the open place on the top of the Capitol which had been thought of for the new temple that it was revealed to them that something unusual was occurring Man in the Blue Moon
