Social Marketing Strategies Conservation Issues And Analysis:

Social Marketing Strategies Donald L. Perry, 1976 Environmental Marketing William Winston, Alma T Mintu-Wimsatt, 2013-04-03 Environmental Marketing Strategies Practice Theory and Research is a timely resource for the 1990s It examines a broad range of issues that affect environmental behavior while providing materials and guidance to marketing decisionmakers It will guide your organization toward a decidedly green marketing movement toward marketing concepts and tools that not only serve your organization's objectives but preserve and protect the environment as well Environmental Marketing clearly defines the potential roles of organizations consumers and governments and examines how these groups impact environmental factors through the marketing process The book helps you understand alternative perspectives to green marketing issues and in turn enables you to make clearer more conscious decisions toward improving your environmental marketing performance This resourceful text begins by defining the concept of environmental or green marketing and how the idea of a healthy planet and successful marketing strategies can co exist It discusses the consumer's behavior toward environmental products and how marketers can effectively educate them the guidelines involved in doing so and the consequences of failing to do so The marketer's position on environmental changes in industry is examined along with alternatives for striking a balance between marketing objectives and environmental concerns Finally the book discusses the global response to environmental marketing and where multi national organizations belong within this balance Environmental Marketing is a book for all managers involved in decisions impacting the environment It is also of great interest to public policymakers and academics who wish for quick insight into environmental marketing issues System Design Modeling and Metamodeling John P. van Gigch, 2013-06-29 This book is a venture in the worlds of modeling and of metamodeling At this point I will not reveal to readers what constitutes metamodeling Suffice it to say that the pitfalls and shortcomings of modeling can be cured only if we resort to a higher level of inquiry called metainquiry and metadesign We reach this level by the process of abstraction The book contains five chapters from my previous work Applied General Systems Theory Harper and Row London and New York First Edition 1974 Second Edition 1978 More than ten years after its publication this material still appears relevant to the main thrust of system design This book is dedicated to all those who are involved in changing the world for the better In a way we all are involved in system design from the city manager who struggles with the problems of mass transportation or the consolidation of a city and its suburbs to the social worker who tries to provide benefits to the urban poor It includes the engineer who designs the shuttle rockets It involves the politician engaged in drafting a bill to recycle containers or one to prevent pesticide contamination of our food The politician might even need system design to chart his or her own re election campaign Sustainable Marketing of Transformative Heritage Tourism Deepak Chhabra, 2024-11-29 This book proposes that sustainable marketing should be founded on a higher level of consciousness governed by the Eastern ethical principles of dharma and karma It suggests a socially responsible integrated marketing strategy to boost transformational heritage tourism The book puts forward a framework to promote and inspire transformative heritage tourism from a sustainable marketing perspective Drawing on examples from different parts of the world such as Thailand China the USA India Australia the United Kingdom Spain and Hong Kong it takes a unique approach by integrating elements associated with distributive justice procedural justice morally motivated existentialist authentic experiences and the well being of visited and visiting environments The book pivots on the planning and marketing of heritage of communities such as local descendent and indigenous across eight broad themes 1 promotion and sustainable branding of heritage tourism 2 empowerment of indigenous communities 3 authenticity and conservation of heritage 4 safeguarding of art culture and cultural landscapes 5 economic viability for the host communities 6 interpretation and resolution of dissonant heritage representations 7 stimulating audience engagement and co created mindful spaces and 8 facilitating moral consciousness and stimulating lasting inner transformation in guests and hosts Scholars can replicate and or test the proposed guided sustainable marketing model referred to as the transformative heritage tourism pathway which is adapted from a the needs activities and well being sequential path of transformation and b the socially responsible sustainable marketing doctrine guided by the principles of dharma and karma This book is unique as it stresses eudaimonia as the ultimate goal of well being and argues that its pursuit can steer the sustained transformation route toward a higher sense of consciousness and responsible production and consumption of heritage resources In summary this book contributes toward advancing the dialogue on sustainable marketing and transformative heritage tourism It will appeal to researchers undergraduates and practitioners interested in sustainable marketing transformative heritage tourism and social ecological cultural and economic welfare of visited and visiting destinations

Social Marketing Research for Global Public Health W. Douglas Evans,2016-06-15 Like all aspects of society public health practice has been fundamentally changed by the emergence of electronic and social media as centerpieces of human communication and connection More than ever public health practitioners rely on these new marketing and communications technologies to promote longstanding goals like disease prevention and fostering social responsibility Social Marketing Research for Global Public Health offers proven guidelines for crafting campaigns that work in public health It equips readers with tools pioneered by corporate marketers to increase the efficacy of public health interventions in any setting It also provides practical advice to practitioners seeking to assess their interventions along with examples for effective outreach to promote smoking cessation financial literacy and other social goods Combining overviews of marketing theory and methodology with practical chapters specific to public health Social Marketing Research for Global Public Health provides a crucial and holistic understanding for this new imperative in the field Strategic Social

Marketing Jeff French, Ross Gordon, 2019-11-08 Adopting an international approach and offering a broader context this second edition of Strategic Social Marketing presents social marketing principles in a strategic critical and reflexive way illustrating the value of applying marketing to solve social problems including A brand new chapter on evaluation Updated advances in relevant research and theorizing New vignettes and short case studies to illustrate theories throughout the text The authors explore the reasons why marketing should be an integral component of all social programme design and delivery when looking to achieve social good while progressing on to the nature and application of social marketing rethinking traditional concepts such as value and exchange in the social context Their hands on features then let students lay out strategy plans frameworks and tactics to influence behaviours Environmental Policy Processes Surrounding South

Africa's Plastic Bags Regulations: Tensions, Debates and Responses in Waste Product Regulation Godwell Nhamo, 2008-01-31 This study was conducted in South Africa South Africa is the first country within the Southern African Development Community to have regulated plastic shopping bags waste through the imposition of both a standard on thickness and a levy Given this scenario the Plastic Bags Regulations present an illustrative case for researching complexity uncertainty and controversies surrounding a new trend in environmental policy making namely waste product regulation The thesis focuses on understanding and investigating tensions debates and responses emerging from the policy process as actors and actor networks put not only the Plastic Bags Regulations into circulation as focal actant token but also other actants and actant networks as well To this end a research question that addressed environmental policies tensions debates and responses that informed the development of South Africa's Plastic Bags Regulations was spelt out The research objectives included the need to 1 analyse selected international environmental policy processes surrounding plastic shopping bags litter and waste regulation and how these influenced developments in South Africa 2 identify actors actants and actor actant networks that shaped and were being transformed by South Africa's Plastic Bags Regulations and explain the tensions debates and responses arising in the policy processes 3 identify environmental policy outputs and assess outcomes emerging from the formulation and implementation of South Africa's Plastic Bags Regulations and 4 establish patterns in environmental policy process reforms around South Africa's Plastic Bags Regulations The language of actors human actants non human and actor actant networks brings to the fore the aspects of processes and relationships that exist around them As such insights from the actor actant network theory AANT were drawn upon to inform the research AANT enquiry framework collapses binaries such as nature society art science structure agency and global local historically associated with a particular type of social theory AANT also denies that purely technical scientific or social relations are possible the notion of quasi objects or token Data sets were generated following the Plastic Bags Regulations as token actant with time frames

ranging from prior to during and after the formulation of the regulations Similarly data analysis drew insights from AANT's four moments of translation namely problematisation interessement enrolment and mobilisation with the intervention theory providing an evaluative perspective that complemented AANT The findings were that after the promulgation of the first draft of the Plastic Bags Regulations in May 2000 tensions emerged around the nature of regulation whether command and control preferred by government or self regulation preferred by industry and labour In this regard the latter group raised concerns about jobs income and equipment loss as well as the need to have a holistic approach to waste management rather than targeting a single product at a time whilst the former maintained that this would not be so As such education awareness and stringent antilitter penalties were proposed by industry and labour as sustainable responses to the problem of plastic shopping bags waste rather than regulation These debates continued and resulted in minor amendments to the original regulations as finalised by Government in May 2002 However industry and labour continued lobbying government resulting in the conclusion of the Plastic Bags Agreement in September 2002 and the ultimate repulsion of the May 2002 regulations in May 2003 As revealed by this research these responses led to broader social responses and further tensions as demand for plastic shopping bags went down by about 80% although an estimated 1000 jobs were lost and a number of companies lost equipment and business with some closing down following the implementation of
