Social Sin Its Challenges To Christian Life:

Social Sin, Its Challenges to Christian Life Soosai Arokiasamy, Felix M. Podimattam, 1991 A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it s adequately biblical and Gerard Gillemann whether it s adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Reading St. Luke's Text and Theology: Pentecostal Voices Riku P. Tuppurainen, 2019-10-16 Lukan narrative takes its readers into God s story how his salvation plan in Jesus began on the slopes of Judea and at the Sea of Galilee ending on the hill of Calvary and the Mount of Olives yet moving on and telling how the Spirit descended onto the Temple Mount empowering God s people who then began to fulfill the given mandate in the presence of the Spirit Yet readers of Luke Acts throughout the centuries have had a meandering journey as they have tried to understand the narrative s persuasion and Spirit references This book seeks to bring awareness to these challenges by some of the most respected Pentecostal biblical scholars and systematicians Here their vigorous labor with the questions of hermeneutics and theology in relation to Lukan writings have come to fruition These contributions have been collected as a Festschrift in honor and celebration of the career of Roger Stronstad a Pentecostal biblical scholar whose contribution to Lukan studies have moved Pentecostal scholarship from shadows into daylight The editor of this volume invites the readers of Lukan narrative to journey together on the road to Emmaus as we continue to ponder the events in the past the present and the future

History of Catholic Theological Ethics, A Keenan, James F., SJ, 2022 An introduction to Catholic theological ethics through the lens of its historical development from the beginning of the church until today Feminist Catholic Theological Ethics: Conversations in the World Church Hogan, Linda ,Orobator, A.E.,2014-04-10 The growing body of feminist literature in the late 20th and early 21st centuries demonstrates the phenomenal advances of feminist thought and movements in the context of church and society Characteristic of this growth is the re location of issues from the global North and broadening of focus to include voices from the global South In the context of globalization new vistas and voices are emerging that trace new directions and seek to rephrase the central questions in the feminist discourse This volume aims to highlight the changing face and color of feminist theological discourse recognize innovative research in the field and facilitate a global conversation among feminists engaged in theological ethics in the world church The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong,2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author s previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context Asian Synod Peter C. Phan,2015-02-19 Schleiermacher and Sustainability Shelli M. Poe,2018-11-13 Since the 1960s theologians have been involved in efforts to guide Christians to reflection and action in light of planetary peril The contributors to this volume illustrate how Friedrich Schleiermacher s theological work could fulfill that need Schleiermacher s theology they contend finds its culmination in Christian social action and is remarkably conducive to ecological thinking in the modern world Each chapter deals with a particular locus in Schleiermacher s systematic theology focusing on its implications for sustainable living In so doing Schleiermacher and Sustainability offers a sophisticated account of Schleiermacher s thought that will upend many estimations of his value for current constructive theology and provide a potent resource for those seeking to integrate ecological living into the marrow of their daily existence On Becoming a Catholic: The Challenge of Christian Initiation Regis A. Duffy OFM,2010-05-01 This handbook to the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults RCIA written by a renowned religious educator and theologian invites converts the clergy and all those engaged in the catechumenal process to appreciate anew the richness of the Catholic faith Regis Duffy articulates the requirements for becoming and remaining a full Christian committed to gospel values on every level of life to the building of the Kingdom of God On Becoming a Catholic is a complete introduction to the essentials of the catechumenal process and clearly relates what the church teaches to its members Duffy's exposition stresses The theology of the Cross as the root of all Christian conversion and formation and its meaning for individual Christians and parish life The Word of God as prophetic Word in parish familial and personal lives learning to recognize the Lord in unexpected places of our lives and world and nurture openness and responsiveness to the Word How to live and act as one marked by the Cross and the Word of God participating in a conversion process that profoundly changes our priorities values lifestyle and most importantly our involvement in worship and sacraments What it means to be a Christian community discovering the meaning of the Liturgical Year and the Church's role as teacher The value of Lenten observance the meaning of Good Friday and the centrality of the Easter event as basis for a practical theology of our redemptive need and God's enduring response How honest Eucharistic participation embodies a renewed sense of personal commitment to Christ and sense of mission and ministry in the community Federal Council Bulletin, 1926 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1906 Christian Advocate, 1908 Spiritualities of Social Engagement Roger Haight, Alfred Pach, Amanda Avila Kaminski, 2023-04-04 This volume considers two authors who represent different but complementary responses to social injustice and human degradation The writings of Walter Rauschenbusch and Dorothy Day respond to an American situation that arose out of the Industrial Revolution and reflect especially but not exclusively urban life on the East Coast of the United States during the late nineteenth and first half of the twentieth centuries Although these two authors differ greatly they both reacted to the extreme social inequality and strife that occurred between 1890 and the beginning of World War II They shared a total commitment to the cause of social justice their Christian faith and an active engagement in the quest for a just social order But the different ways they reacted to the situation generated different spiritualities Rauschenbusch was a pastor writer historian and seminary professor Day was a journalist who became an organizer The strategic differences between them however grew out of a common sustained reaction against the massive deprivation that surrounded them There is no spiritual rivalry here They complement each other and reinforce the Christian humanitarian motivation that drives them Their work brings the social dimension of Christian spirituality to the surface in a way that had not been emphasized in the same focused way before them They are part of an awakening to the degree to which the social order lies in the hands of the people who support it Both Rauschenbusch and Day are examples of an explicit recognition of the social dimension of Christian spirituality and a radical acting out of that response in two distinctly different ways ISG 44: Church Communities Confronting HIV and AIDS Gideon Byamugisha, 2012-04-10 A new title in the ISG series to help Christians and churches around the world meet the enormous challenges that HIV AIDS presents particularly in African countries Socialism and the Challenge of War (RLE The First
