Social Science and National Security Policy Janeen M. Klinger, 2019-02-07 This book examines how deterrence coercion and modernization theory has informed U S policy addressing why former Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's famous description of the Vietnam War as the social scientist's war is so accurate By tracing the evolution of ties between social scientists and the government beginning in World War I and continuing through the Second World War and the early Cold War the narrative highlights the role of institutions like the RAND Corporation the Social Science Research Council and MIT's Center for International Studies that facilitate these ties while providing a home for the development of theory The author compares and contrasts the ideas of Bernard Brodie Herman Kahn Albert Wohlstetter Thomas Schelling Gabriel Almond Lucian Pye and Walt Rostow among others and offers a cautionary tale concerning the difficulties and problems encountered when applying social science theory to national security policy

Laws And Explanation In The Social Sciences Lee C McIntyre, 2018-10-08 The first full length defense of social scientific laws to appear in the last twenty years this book upholds the prospect of the nomological explanation of human behavior against those who maintain that this approach is impossible impractical or irrelevant By pursuing an analogy with the natural sciences McIntyre shows that the barriers to nomological inquiry within the social sciences are not generated by factors unique to social inquiry but arise from a largely common set of problems that face any scientific endeavor All of the most widely supported arguments against social scientific laws have failed largely due to adherence to a highly idealized conception of nomologicality allegedly drawn from the natural sciences themselves and the limited doctrine of descriptivism Basing his arguments upon a more realistic view of scientific theorizing that emphasizes the pivotal role of redescription in aiding the search for scientific laws McIntyre is optimistic about attaining useful law like explanations of human behavior

Proceedings of the 2023 2nd International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2023) Mohd Fauzi bin Sedon, Intakhab Alam Khan, Mehmet CÜNEYT BİRKÖK, KinSun Chan, 2023-06-29 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today s increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc
