Feminist Time Against Nation Time Victoria Hesford, Lisa Diedrich, 2009-12-01 Feminist Time Against Nation Time offers a series of essays that explore the complex and oftentimes contradictory relationship between feminism and nationalism through a problematization of temporality Although there has been much recent discussion in the U S of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and the War on Terror as signaling a new period of permanent war feminist voices have not been at all prominent in this discussion This collection considers not only the ways in which public spaces for dissent are limited but also the ways in which the time for such dissent is cut short Feminist Time Against Nation Time combines philosophical examinations of Women's Time by Julia Kristeva and The Time of Thought by Elizabeth Grosz with essays offering case studies of particular events including Kelly Oliver's essay on the media coverage of the U S wars on terror and in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph's on the anti colonial uses of women's time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment

Karamanlis Institute for Democracy Yearbook 2009 Constantine Arvanitopoulos, Konstantina E. Botsiou, 2009-06-24

Constantine Arvanitopoulos and Konstantina E Botsiou Europe at a Crossroads European unification has rested on a dual premise One part was the effort of the European nations to consolidate peace by overcoming the nationalism which had twice drenched the continent in blood in the 20th century War among West European states became unthinkable in the post war era The second part was the creation of a single European economy following the tremendous task of post war 2 reconstruction and recovery Over the years the achievement of economic stability was matched by initiatives that aimed to render Western Europe competitive on a global scale The creation of the European Union EU in the 1990s through the Treaties of Maastricht 1992 and Amsterdam 1997 and later Nice 2001 which successively revised the founding Treaties of Rome 1957 was largely a response 3 to the challenge of globalisation Integration rejuvenated the nation state thus creating the hybrid of the Euro 4 pean welfare state a mix of state imposed stability and private initiative Like its 1 Sforza C 1936 Europe and the Europeans Community Report A study in historical psychology and international politics London George G Harrap and Company 2 Milward A S 1984 The reconstruction of Western Europe 1945 1951 London Routledge Hogan M J 1987 The Marshall plan America Britain and the reconstruction of Western Europe 1947 1954 Cambridge Cambridge University Press 3 Dyson K Featherstone K 1999 The Portable Kristeva Julia Kristeva, 2002-05-29 As a linguist Julia Kristeva has pioneered a revolutionary theory of the sign in its relation to social and political emancipation as a practicing psychoanalyst she has produced work on the nature of the human subject and sexuality and on the new maladies of today's neurotic The Portable Kristeva is the only fully comprehensive compilation of Kristeva's key writings The second edition includes added material from Kristeva's most important works of the past five years including The Sense and Non Sense of Revolt Intimate Revolt and Hannah Arendt Editor Kelly Oliver has also added new material to the introduction summarizing Kristeva's latest intellectual endeavors and updating the bibliography

The Successor Generation Stephen F. Szabo, 1983 Transnational Moments of Change Padraic Kenney, Gerd Rainer-Horn, 2004-01-29 Transnational Moments of Change offers a broad introduction to the methodology and practice of transnational history To demonstrate the value of this approach the work focuses on Europe since World War II a period whose study particularly benefits from a transnational vantage point Twelve distinguished contributors from around the globe offer a range of transnational approaches to three continent wide moments of change The work begins with a look at the close of World War Two when liberation from Nazi occupation offered the opportunity for social and political experiment Next essays explore the late 1960s as generational change and political dissatisfaction rocked urban centers from Paris to Prague Finally the book turns to the fall of communism a moment of revolutionary change that not only spread rapidly from country to country but even affected and interacted with protest movements in Western Europe and elsewhere Together the essays provide both a new perspective on postwar Europe and a range of models for the historian interested in using the transnational approach Eastern European

Post-Liberalism John Gray, 2014-02-04 John Gray has become one of our liveliest and most influential political philosophers This current volume is a sequel to his Liberalisms Essays in Political Philosophy The earlier book ended on a sceptical note both in respect of what a post liberal political philosophy might look like and with respect to the claims of political philosophy itself John Gray s new book gives post liberal theory a more definite content It does so by considering particular thinkers in the history of political thought by criticizing the conventional wisdom liberal and socialist of the Western academic class and most directly by specifying what remains of value in liberalism The upshot of this line of thought is that we need not regret the failure of foundationalist liberalism since we have all we need in the historic inheritance of the institutions of civil society It is to the practice of liberty that these institutions encompass rather than to empty liberal theory that we should repair
