Welcome to Sociology!

I'm looking forward to sharing this semester with you! Please take a few minutes to explore this syllabus. It is designed specifically for you, so you'll know what to expect from and in this class. It's meant to serve as a sort of "road map" – a guide to let you know where we're going, how we'll get there, and what you'll need along the way. Getting familiar with the syllabus is a great first step toward a successful journey in this course. If you have any questions, please get in touch with me using the contact information listed above.

Course description

Sociology focuses on understanding how social contexts influence people's lives. In this course, major theoretical and methodological approaches will be studied to address a number of issues, such as: culture, deviance, class, race/ethnicity, gender, sexuality, education, and social change from a sociological perspective. This means that we consider how social forces and structures affect everyday experiences.

Learning outcomes

After finishing this course, you should be able to:

- ★ Apply the sociological imagination to examine everyday life and experiences
 - ★ Describe major perspectives and methodologies used in sociological research
 - ★ Analyze cultural norms and expectations and how they vary across social contexts
 - ★ Explain how social inequality (such as by social class, race/ethnicity, and gender) operates within society and impacts people's life chances
 - ★ Discuss how social structures impact individuals, as well as how individuals facilitate change in social structures
